Reappraisal In Hancock Seen Invalid

Court To Issue Writ Against Use Of '63 Figures For Taxes

Circuit Judge James G. McClure has issued a ruling in Hancock County's controversial real estate reappraisal that appears to invalidate use of the reappraisal figures in 1963.

In an eight-page review of the court hassle on the reappraisal, Judge McClure said "a writ of prohibition prohibiting the use of the order of County Court March 30 as a basis for the valuation of real property in Hancock County may be tendered for the court's signature."

This order should also provide for dissolution of a temporary injunction granted earlier to a group of Weirton property owners who challenged the reappraisal.

County Court entered an order March 30 calling for redetermining of assessed valuations of property on the basis of a completed professional appraisal of county property by Cole, Layer & Trumble of Dayton.

The order was entered after G. Thomas Battle, state tax commissioner, had directed County Court to re-assess property in accordance with the property reappraisal laws.

Judge McClure's ruling has made invalid the March 30 order of County Court, apparently meaning that the County Court did not have the authority to instruct Assessor Arnold F. Anderson to use the reappraisal in figuring 1963 assessments.

The state tax chief had contended that his office had the authority to direct County Court to use the reappraisal figures. But County Court apparently did not have the authority to direct the assessor to comply with the reappraisal, because the deadline had expired for hearing complaints on the new figures by a Board of Equalization and Review.

With the March 30 order ruled invalid, County Court apparently has no alternative but to revert back to the previous order of Feb. 28, which called for 1962 appraisals to be used in 1963 assessments.

In that case, a gain of $30 million in tax assessments would be wiped out and tax levying bodies in the county would probably be required to figure new fiscal budgets.

Drivers Hurt In Mishap On Dresden Ave.

Two men were injured early today when an auto rounded a Dresden Ave. curve on the wrong side of the highway and crashed head-on into a truck, police reported.

Treated at City Hospital were: Donald E. Suriner, 38, of Pittsfield, Mass., who suffered a laceration of the lower lip, and William W. White, 39, of the Sprucevale Rd., who escaped with abrasions of the arm and left knee.

Police said Suriner's southbound 1962 model two-door sedan rounded a curve at Trentvale St. on the wrong side of the roadway and crashed head-on into a 1962 model quarter-ton truck operated by White.

He forfeited a $32.50 bond when he failed to appear for a scheduled hearing this morning in Municipal Court.

Timed at 1:42 a. m., the crash damaged the front end of each vehicle, officers said. White was driving a truck owned by the Harvey-White Construction Co., 300 W. 3rd St., and Suriner was operating an auto owned by Sigrid Anderson of Mayfield Heights, police said.

The two injured men were taken to the hospital in an ambulance and a police cruiser.

White told Patrolman H. W. Bosworth he was driving north when he saw a car approaching on the wrong side of the highway. The auto's headlights were out, but the parking lights were illuminated, he said.

White said he attempted to pull into the opposite lane to avoid a collision, but was prevented by oncoming traffic. He could not pull off the road to the right because of a deep ditch, so he halted and hoped the oncoming car would stop, White related. But the auto continued, striking the truck head-on, he said.

Suriner told police he was unable to halt when he saw White's truck.

But City's Hopeful

Money Problem May Delay Ramp

Although the Federal Bureau of Public Roads has approved a project for construction of a ramp to link together the two dead - end sections of W. 9th St., lack of matching funds in the State Highway Department will delay an immediate start on the job.

Mayor Bert H. Goodballet received that word in a letter Wednesday from Earl W. Nelson, head of the Highway Department's Division 11 office in New Philadelphia, but he commented he still is hopeful that the financial problem can be worked out and the project will begin in a reasonable time.

NELSON ALSO told the mayor —despite his warning of delay— that he feels the city should retain a consulting engineering firm to make surveys and prepare plans for the project. The city will be credited with the cost of the plans as part of its share of the job, Nelson said.

The administration and Council have negotiated nearly two years with state and federal agencies, urging construction of a vehicle and pedestrian ramp to tie together the two sections of W. 9th St. that were left dead-ends with the construction of the California Hollow-West End Freeway.

Nelson's letter to the mayor indicated the project can proceed immediately only if the city agrees to foot half the bill. The cost has been estimated at $110,000 to $160,000, including right-of-way.

But Mayor Goodballet said he is hopeful the financial problem can be worked out with the state. By the time the plans are ready—a project that will require several months — the financial dilemma may have resolved itself, he said.

THE MAYOR said he expects to point out to the Highway Department that the city's informal agreement with the former administration provided that the city would assume approximately 5 per cent of the cost — the state and the federal agency assuming the balance. He pointed out the city made approximately the same size contribution for construction of the freeway itself.

Kennedy Voices Concern

Laos Crisis Tied To Future Peace

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy says "the future of peaceful coexistence" and the military security of Southeast Asia may hang in the balance as East and West grapple with the crisis in Laos.

While being obviously wary of discussing the subject, Kennedy managed at his news conference Wednesday to dramatize official concern over the threat by Communist forces to destroy the independence and neutrality of the Laotian kingdom.

His meeting with newsmen came shortly after the Pentagon announced it had ordered 3,000 troops and some jet planes into Thailand next month for maneuvers. Communist-threatened Thailand borders Laos.

In an opening statement, Kennedy announced that W. Averell Harriman, undersecretary of state would travel to Moscow today bearing a presidential message to Soviet Premier Khrushchev on the situation in Laos.

Kennedy said, "We will know a good deal more about the prospects" once Harriman completes his mission.

On other major topics, Kennedy said:

Britain and the United States are urging Khrushchev to speed nuclear test ban talks, though "I am not overly sanguine about the prospects." Kennedy suggested that only agreement on a test ban could induce him to participate in an early summit meeting with the Soviet premier.

Since January, 4,000 to 5,000 Soviet troops and technical personnel have left Cuba while the number entering that country has been "300 or 400 at the most."

Critics of the administration's Cuba policies should be more precise in presenting alternatives. And Kennedy believes it would be "imprudent" at this time to recognize a Cuban government in exile which might not adequately represent the home folks.

The President is confident that House members, if given a chance by the Rules Committee to vote on major administration programs, "will make very clear that the American people are still committed" to the economic goals Kennedy has in mind.

In discussing Laos, Kennedy asserted that "I don't want to say anything that will prejudice Secretary Harriman's trip." But he did make these three major points:

1. Laos provides a potentially crucial test of whether it is possible for East and West to reach and maintain agreement on subjects where serious differences are involved.

"If we fail in Laos," he said, "I would think the prospects for accords on matters which may be geographically closer to us would be substantially lessened."

2. Noting the control exercised by the Soviet Union in Laos as recently as last July, when an East-West agreement was reached at Geneva Kennedy said the next few weeks should show "whether the Soviets maintain the same degree of control now, whether they desire to maintain their influence, and whether their influence will be thrown in the direction of a maintenance of the Geneva settlement."

Baltimore Chapter Maps Plans

Rights Group To Finish Hike Of Slain Postman

ATTALLA, Ala. (AP)—An anti-segregation hike which ended in death for a Maryland postman—as he had been told it might—will be completed by members of a civil rights group.

The Baltimore chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality and the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee in Atlanta were making plans today to take over the personal pilgrimage which brought death to William L. Moore, 35, of Baltimore.

Moore was shot to death Tuesday night near this northeast Alabama town, about 60 miles northeast of Birmingham. State and county law enforcement agencies have thrown every available man into the search for the killer.

The only known clues to the bizarre murder were tire marks and two empty cartridges found at the scene, and two small-caliber bullets taken from Moore's body.

The killing brought cries of anger, protest and astonishment from President Kennedy, Alabama Gov. George Wallace, senators, Congressmen and prointegration organizations.

The vacationing postman was walking from Chattanooga, Tenn., to Jackson, Miss., to explain his racial views to Gov. Ross Barnett. He carried prointegration signs.

18 Segregationists Arrested In Alabama

A parking lot in front of the Capitol had been cleared for Kennedy's arrival, but instead his car pulled in about 150 feet from the Capitol steps on a city street.

Chester Duplex Hit

Two Families Flee Fire; Damage Set At $8,000

Blaze Races After Start In Kitchen

Firemen Delayed In Confusion Over Telephone Calls

Two families were forced from their home in Chester this morning by a blaze which burned out the interior of a two-story frame house in Church Alley, causing damage estimated at $8,000.

No one was injured in the fire which broke out about 7:50 a. m. in the double house in which Mr. and Mrs. Gary Starkey and a daughter reside on one side and Mr. and Mrs. Russell (Bud) Yeater and two daughters on the other.

Fathers At Work

Both men were at work at the American Vitrified Products Co. when the blaze occurred.

Mrs. Yeater said a piece of paper held by her daughter, Tonia, 5, apparently ignited from a gas burner in the kitchen and fell into a waste paper container by the stove and started the fire.

She said she had lit the burner earlier, and was in another room when Tonia came from the kitchen and said the container was ablaze.

Mrs. Yeater said she phoned the fire department and had shouted to Mrs. Starkey next door. When Mrs. Starkey came in, Mrs. Yeater said she handed the phone to Mrs. Starkey and ran upstairs to get her other daughter, Denise, 3, who was asleep.

Smoke Draws Crowd

Thick clouds of light - colored smoke billowed up from the burning house as a crowd gathered at the site between 2nd and 3rd St.

Flames broke through the roof from the attic at the rear of the structure at times. The heaviest damage was at the rear of the house.

Damage to the interior of the Yeater side of the house was extensive, and flames ate through the partition between the homes and caused fire and smoke damage in that area.

Several boys on their way to school helped firemen carry furniture and other items from the Starkey side.

Siren Delay Cited

Mrs. Starkey said she completed the call to the fire department. Both said it seemed a long time before the Chester fire siren sounded.

There was some delay in responding to the fire because of confusion about the address.

The East Liverpool department received a call at 7:51, giving the Church St. address, and sent trucks to the West End. The Chester department received its first notice of the fire by telephone at 7:57.

Mrs. Starkey said her daughter, Sue, 10, was getting ready to go to the Central School where she is in third grade.

She said they fled when the smoke became so thick.

Yeaters Lose All

Witnesses said nothing was saved from the Yeater home, but livingroom furniture and some kitchen furniture were removed in time from the Starkey residence.

FLAMES EAT THROUGH WALL. A bystander points out a new fire area to Chester firemen during an $8,000 blaze which drove two families from their Church Alley home this morning about 8. Flames are breaking through the siding in the upper west wall of the double house as firemen haul hoses up into the second floor. The Chester department was at the scene for over two hours. No one was injured.

Deputies In Hancock Cite Operator Of Bar

Hancock County sheriff's deputies continued a check on taverns suspected of violating state beer and liquor laws early today, arresting one man at a Route 30 establishment near Chester.

Robert E. Fryer of Bob's Bar, charged with dispensing beer after hours, was fined $50 and costs at a hearing at 3:45 a. m. today before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland.

The office of Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny made six arrests in raids early Sunday morning and another Monday night.

Kennedy Hits At Critics Of Cuban Policy

Challenges Them To Say Whether They Advocate War

WASHINGTON (AP—President Kennedy has challenged critics of his Cuban policy to say whether they advocate going to war to topple Fidel Castro.

That's the question being sidestepped by those who call for a more militant policy against Cuba's Communist regime, Kennedy told his news conference Wednesday.

And except for going to war, the President declared, "It would seem to me that we have pretty much done all of those things that can be done to demonstrate hostility to the concept of a Soviet satellite in the Caribbean."

Kennedy addressed himself to two recent Republican critics — former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. Kenneth B. Keating of New York—as the Cuban question vied with the tense situation in Laos for preeminence at the conference.

Crucible Sales Dip With Rise In Income

A summary of income for the quarter ended March 31 shows the Crucible Steel Co. of America had a drop in sales but increased income, compared to the similar period in 1962.

Joel Hunter, president, reported at the annual meeting of stockholders at Flemington, N. J., Wednesday sales in the recent quarter were $66,325,000, against $67,960,000, and net income was $2,592,000, contrasted to $2,457,000 for the comparable quarter.

This was equivalent to 64 cents per common share, after preferred stock dividend requirements, against 61 cents for the 1962 period. Depreciation was $2,755,000 for the recent quarter and $2,352,000 for the other quarter. Federal income tax was $2,918,000 in the past quarter and $2,711,000 previously.

'Amazing Freak'

Regains Sight After 60 Years

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Since she was 9 weeks old, Miss Bessie Sikes has been virtually blind. Suddenly, at 60, she has regained her sight.

"I think it's just a freak, a wonderful, amazing freak," Miss Sikes said. "I don't know how long it will last. Maybe a few days. Maybe a year. Maybe forever."

A few minutes after 8 o'clock Sunday morning, still wearing her nightgown, she walked into the kitchen, drank a glass of water, and casually rubbed her left eye because it seemed moist.

Suddenly she saw something — the floor.

She fell to her knees and ran her hands across the smooth linoleum, streaked green in design. Bessie Sikes had never seen the color before. She didn't know what it was.

"I thought I'd gone crazy. My crazy left eye was going around and around, it wouldn't stop," she recalled.

She rose, and there was a white refrigerator. "Big as a house," she said Wednesday.

Trembling with disbelief, she went to the window, and for the first time in memory she saw a blue sky, tops of two palm trees, a chimney. Nothing was perfectly distinct, but see she could.

"A little glimpse of heaven," she called it.

The next morning she was in the office of an ophthalmologist who had known her for 25 years. "Amazing, amazing," she quoted him.

Driver Fined, Sentenced

Police Untangle Mystery Behind Crash, Jail 2 Men

Five hours of dogged police work was required Wednesday night to untangle the facts behind a crash on Dresden Ave. in which an auto struck a guardrail on Dresden Ave., hurling a passenger to the street, and the driver fled the scene, later abandoning his car.

Patrolmen William A. Devon and Karl W. Samples succeeded in piecing the facts together, despite misleading statements from both the injured man and the driver, and jailed the pair on three charges.

As an upshot of their investigation, Frank K. Boyd, 18, of 1940 Pennsylvania Ave., the driver, was sentenced to 60 days in the County Jail today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff and drew a $50 fine and a 90-day suspension of his operator's permit on a charge of reckless operation.

Virgil C. Willard, 41, of Price St. Ext., his injured passenger, was fined $10 and costs on an intoxication charge.

After hearing testimony from Officer Devon, Judge Chertoff commented on the "good police work" that led to untangling the case.

Police said it all started at 5:05 p. m. yesterday when a call was received at headquarters that a pedestrian had been struck by an auto in the 900 block of Dres-

Jobless Aid Bill Passed In Ohio House

Key Measure Now Faces Senate Test; No Hearings Set

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP — Unemployment pay rates will remain the same, but benefits will be harder to get while the benefit fund swells back to respectable proportions.

That, in a few words, is the upshot of one of the key bills of the 105th General Assembly which passed the House 87-44 Wednesday and now faces a final test in the Senate.

No Senate hearings are possible before next week on the measure to build up the benefits fund, which once topped $600 million and now has dropped to about $70 million. The aim is, through increased employer contributions, to build the benefits fund to about $450 million by 1970.

House Republicans, in a 135-minute debate, knocked down all seven Democratic amendments to stave off Republican changes in liberalized jobless benefit qualifications adopted by the 1959 Democratic legislature.

Four Democrats voted for the bill itself and three Republicans voted against. Five members were absent.

The Senate, meanwhile, sent to the House the first mandatory fine and jail sentence measure under Ohio's liquor control law. It provides fines of $100 to $1,000 plus jail terms of 30 days to six months for moonshiners — those who manufacture illegal liquor. Bootleggers—those who sell it—would be subject to fines or jail.

Reappraisal In Hancock Seen Invalid

Court To Issue Writ Against Use Of '63 Figures For Taxes

Circuit Judge James G. McClure has issued a ruling in Hancock County's controversial real estate reappraisal that appears to invalidate use of the reappraisal figures in 1963.

In an eight-page review of the court hassle on the reappraisal, Judge McClure said "a writ of prohibition prohibiting the use of the order of County Court March 30 as a basis for the valuation of real property in Hancock County may be tendered for the court's signature."

This order should also provide for dissolution of a temporary injunction granted earlier to a group of Weirton property owners who challenged the reappraisal.

County Court entered an order March 30 calling for redetermining of assessed valuations of property on the basis of a completed professional appraisal of county property by Cole, Layer & Trumble of Dayton.

The order was entered after G. Thomas Battle, state tax commissioner, had directed County Court to re-assess property in accordance with the property reappraisal laws.

Judge McClure's ruling has made invalid the March 30 order of County Court, apparently meaning that the County Court did not have the authority to instruct Assessor Arnold F. Anderson to use the reappraisal in figuring 1963 assessments.

The state tax chief had contended that his office had the authority to direct County Court to use the reappraisal figures. But County Court apparently did not have the authority to direct the assessor to comply with the reappraisal, because the deadline had expired for hearing complaints on the new figures by a Board of Equalization and Review.

With the March 30 order ruled invalid, County Court apparently has no alternative but to revert back to the previous order of Feb. 28, which called for 1962 appraisals to be used in 1963 assessments.

In that case, a gain of $30 million in tax assessments would be wiped out and tax levying bodies in the county would probably be required to figure new fiscal budgets.

Drivers Hurt In Mishap On Dresden Ave.

Two men were injured early today when an auto rounded a Dresden Ave. curve on the wrong side of the highway and crashed head-on into a truck, police reported.

Police said Suriner's southbound 1962 model two-door sedan rounded a curve at Trentvale St. on the wrong side of the roadway and crashed head-on into a 1962 model quarter-ton truck operated by White.

The two injured men were taken to the hospital in an ambulance and a police cruiser.

White told Patrolman H. W. Bosworth he was driving north when he saw a car approaching on the wrong side of the highway. The auto's headlights were out, but the parking lights were illuminated, he said.

Money Problem May Delay Ramp

Although the Federal Bureau of Public Roads has approved a project for construction of a ramp to link together the two dead - end sections of W. 9th St., lack of matching funds in the State Highway Department will delay an immediate start on the job.

Mayor Bert H. Goodballet received that word in a letter Wednesday from Earl W. Nelson, head of the Highway Department's Division 11 office in New Philadelphia, but he commented he still is hopeful that the financial problem can be worked out and the project will begin in a reasonable time.

NELSON ALSO told the mayor —despite his warning of delay— that he feels the city should retain a consulting engineering firm to make surveys and prepare plans for the project. The city will be credited with the cost of the plans as part of its share of the job, Nelson said.

The administration and Council have negotiated nearly two years with state and federal agencies, urging construction of a vehicle and pedestrian ramp to tie together the two sections of W. 9th St. that were left dead-ends with the construction of the California Hollow-West End Freeway.

THE MAYOR said he expects to point out to the Highway Department that the city's informal agreement with the former administration provided that the city would assume approximately 5 per cent of the cost — the state and the federal agency assuming the balance. He pointed out the city made approximately the same size contribution for construction of the freeway itself.

Challenges Them To Say Whether They Advocate War

WASHINGTON (AP—President Kennedy has challenged critics of his Cuban policy to say whether they advocate going to war to topple Fidel Castro.

That's the question being sidestepped by those who call for a more militant policy against Cuba's Communist regime, Kennedy told his news conference Wednesday.

And except for going to war, the President declared, "It would seem to me that we have pretty much done all of those things that can be done to demonstrate hostility to the concept of a Soviet satellite in the Caribbean."

Kennedy addressed himself to two recent Republican critics — former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. Kenneth B. Keating of New York—as the Cuban question vied with the tense situation in Laos for preeminence at the conference.

Crucible Sales Dip With Rise In Income

A summary of income for the quarter ended March 31 shows the Crucible Steel Co. of America had a drop in sales but increased income, compared to the similar period in 1962.

Joel Hunter, president, reported at the annual meeting of stockholders at Flemington, N. J., Wednesday sales in the recent quarter were $66,325,000, against $67,960,000, and net income was $2,592,000, contrasted to $2,457,000 for the comparable quarter.

This was equivalent to 64 cents per common share, after preferred stock dividend requirements, against 61 cents for the 1962 period. Depreciation was $2,755,000 for the recent quarter and $2,352,000 for the other quarter. Federal income tax was $2,918,000 in the past quarter and $2,711,000 previously.

'Amazing Freak'

Regains Sight After 60 Years

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Since she was 9 weeks old, Miss Bessie Sikes has been virtually blind. Suddenly, at 60, she has regained her sight.

"I think it's just a freak, a wonderful, amazing freak," Miss Sikes said. "I don't know how long it will last. Maybe a few days. Maybe a year. Maybe forever."

A few minutes after 8 o'clock Sunday morning, still wearing her nightgown, she walked into the kitchen, drank a glass of water, and casually rubbed her left eye because it seemed moist.

Suddenly she saw something — the floor.

She fell to her knees and ran her hands across the smooth linoleum, streaked green in design. Bessie Sikes had never seen the color before. She didn't know what it was.

"I thought I'd gone crazy. My crazy left eye was going around and around, it wouldn't stop," she recalled.

She rose, and there was a white refrigerator. "Big as a house," she said Wednesday.

Trembling with disbelief, she went to the window, and for the first time in memory she saw a blue sky, tops of two palm trees, a chimney. Nothing was perfectly distinct, but see she could.

"A little glimpse of heaven," she called it.

The next morning she was in the office of an ophthalmologist who had known her for 25 years. "Amazing, amazing," she quoted him.

Driver Fined, Sentenced

Police Untangle Mystery Behind Crash, Jail 2 Men

Five hours of dogged police work was required Wednesday night to untangle the facts behind a crash on Dresden Ave. in which an auto struck a guardrail on Dresden Ave., hurling a passenger to the street, and the driver fled the scene, later abandoning his car.

Patrolmen William A. Devon and Karl W. Samples succeeded in piecing the facts together, despite misleading statements from both the injured man and the driver, and jailed the pair on three charges.

As an upshot of their investigation, Frank K. Boyd, 18, of 1940 Pennsylvania Ave., the driver, was sentenced to 60 days in the County Jail today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff and drew a $50 fine and a 90-day suspension of his operator's permit on a charge of reckless operation.

Virgil C. Willard, 41, of Price St. Ext., his injured passenger, was fined $10 and costs on an intoxication charge.

After hearing testimony from Officer Devon, Judge Chertoff commented on the "good police work" that led to untangling the case.

Police said it all started at 5:05 p. m. yesterday when a call was received at headquarters that a pedestrian had been struck by an auto in the 900 block of Dres-

Jobless Aid Bill Passed In Ohio House

Key Measure Now Faces Senate Test; No Hearings Set

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP — Unemployment pay rates will remain the same, but benefits will be harder to get while the benefit fund swells back to respectable proportions.

That, in a few words, is the upshot of one of the key bills of the 105th General Assembly which passed the House 87-44 Wednesday and now faces a final test in the Senate.

No Senate hearings are possible before next week on the measure to build up the benefits fund, which once topped $600 million and now has dropped to about $70 million. The aim is, through increased employer contributions, to build the benefits fund to about $450 million by 1970.

House Republicans, in a 135-minute debate, knocked down all seven Democratic amendments to stave off Republican changes in liberalized jobless benefit qualifications adopted by the 1959 Democratic legislature.

Four Democrats voted for the bill itself and three Republicans voted against. Five members were absent.

The Senate, meanwhile, sent to the House the first mandatory fine and jail sentence measure under Ohio's liquor control law. It provides fines of $100 to $1,000 plus jail terms of 30 days to six months for moonshiners — those who manufacture illegal liquor. Bootleggers—those who sell it—would be subject to fines or jail.

Fire

Mrs. Starkey said furniture and clothing upstairs were lost completely. Neither family had insurance on the household furnishings.

Mrs. Yeater after getting the children from the home, ran up and down the street calling for help from neighbors.

She said she is tentatively planning to live temporarily with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thornberry, of 2nd St., Chester.

Mrs. Starkey said her family may reside temporarily with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Stout, of Smithfield.

$3,000 Furnishings

Acting Police Chief Clarence Lennens, secretary of the fire department, said damage would amount to about $8,000 on the first estimate.

He said there was about $5,000 damage to the property and $3,000 to the furnishings of the two homes.

Seventeen firemen and two trucks responded to the call of the siren, which sounded at 8 a. m.

The homes of Earl Wilson and Harry Bond on each side of the building were not damaged, Lennens said.

East Liverpool firemen received an alarm at 7:51 a. m. with a woman reporting a fire at 212 Church St. "Hurry up; the kitchen's on fire!," she yelled.

Fireman Merl McShane, acting assistant chief, said the telephone operator came on the line McShane queried, "That's in the West End?", the only reply was another plea to hurry.

McShane said a pumper and emergency truck from Central Station and a pumper from Pleasant Heights raced to Church St. in the West End.

Unable to locate a fire in the West End area, firemen radioed back to Central and learned the fire was in Chester, McShane said.

The acting assistant chief said North Side firemen, filling in at Central, called the telephone operator immediately upon learning there was no fire in the West End, fearing the call might have been for Church Alley in the downtown area.

When firemen called, the operator said she had the call straightened out and the fire was in Chester.

An unidentified man at the fire said he was driving past when he spotted the smoke and flames and hurried to a phone. Told that the fire line was busy, the man said he told the operator to break in and was connected with the Newell department.

den Ave., just beyond W. 9th St.

When Officers Devon and Samples arrived on the scene, they found Willard being placed in an ambulance. He told the officers he was thrown from an auto, but he said he did not know the driver because he had been given a ride as a hitch - hiker.

But a bystander pointed out Boyd to the police and said that he resembled the young man who had been driving the car when it hit the guardrail. As Boyd had been drinking, he was taken to jail on an intoxication charge, police said.

Willard was admitted to City Hospital with possible back injuries and minor facial cuts and contusions.

Willard later left the hospital, although he had not been discharged, police said. Advised by hospital authorities, police located him in a tavern on W. 6th St. and took him to jail on an intoxication charge.

Willard later gave a statement in which he named Boyd as the driver, police said. Confronted with his friend's statement, Boyd admitted about 10 p. m. that he was operating the auto when it hit the guardrail, police said.

Boyd said he drove the car to Smith St. and abandoned it after the crash, then walked back to the scene to find how seriously Willard had been injured.

The abandoned car, a 1947 four-door owned by his brother, Bill Boyd, 724 Price St., was written off as a total loss, police said.

Boyd pleaded guilty to both charges before Judge Chertoff this morning.

The judge, in a statement from the bench, recalled that Boyd was before him a few months ago on a charge of throwing a flare from a street construction job against a house in East End. On that charge, Boyd was sentenced to 30 days in jail, but he later was released because the heating system at City Hall failed in below-zero weather, the judge recalled.

He warned Boyd that he could have been fined $200 and given a six-month term on the charge of leaving the scene of the crash.

gren said the Highway Department will be notified the city expects to proceed on the basis of state participation.

In his letter, Nelson first formally advised the mayor of the approval of the project by the Bureau of Public Roads, meaning the federal agency will pay half the cost.

Then he added: "Due to the acute shortage of state matching funds, I am unable to give you any information as to when this project can be financed if such matching funds are necessary."

NELSON SAID the work can proceed as soon as the plans are completed if the city wishes to assume all costs not being paid by the federal agency. But if the city waits on state matching funds the contract date "is uncertain," he added.

Nelson also outlined the procedure between the city and the state for executing a contract with a consultant to prepare the plans.

The division engineer said he expects to discuss the project further with the city officials in a visit here Friday at 3 p. m. to inspect the River Rd.

Mrs. Starkey said furniture and clothing upstairs were lost completely. Neither family had insurance on the household furnishings.

Mrs. Yeater after getting the children from the home, ran up and down the street calling for help from neighbors.

She said she is tentatively planning to live temporarily with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thornberry, of 2nd St., Chester.

Mrs. Starkey said her family may reside temporarily with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Stout, of Smithfield.

$3,000 Furnishings

Acting Police Chief Clarence Lennens, secretary of the fire department, said damage would amount to about $8,000 on the first estimate.

He said there was about $5,000 damage to the property and $3,000 to the furnishings of the two homes.

Seventeen firemen and two trucks responded to the call of the siren, which sounded at 8 a. m.

The homes of Earl Wilson and Harry Bond on each side of the building were not damaged, Lennens said.

East Liverpool firemen received an alarm at 7:51 a. m. with a woman reporting a fire at 212 Church St. "Hurry up; the kitchen's on fire!," she yelled.

Fireman Merl McShane, acting assistant chief, said the telephone operator came on the line McShane queried, "That's in the West End?", the only reply was another plea to hurry.

McShane said a pumper and emergency truck from Central Station and a pumper from Pleasant Heights raced to Church St. in the West End.

Unable to locate a fire in the West End area, firemen radioed back to Central and learned the fire was in Chester, McShane said.

The acting assistant chief said North Side firemen, filling in at Central, called the telephone operator immediately upon learning there was no fire in the West End, fearing the call might have been for Church Alley in the downtown area.

When firemen called, the operator said she had the call straightened out and the fire was in Chester.

An unidentified man at the fire said he was driving past when he spotted the smoke and flames and hurried to a phone. Told that the fire line was busy, the man said he told the operator to break in and was connected with the Newell department.

den Ave., just beyond W. 9th St.

When Officers Devon and Samples arrived on the scene, they found Willard being placed in an ambulance. He told the officers he was thrown from an auto, but he said he did not know the driver because he had been given a ride as a hitch - hiker.

But a bystander pointed out Boyd to the police and said that he resembled the young man who had been driving the car when it hit the guardrail. As Boyd had been drinking, he was taken to jail on an intoxication charge, police said.

Willard was admitted to City Hospital with possible back injuries and minor facial cuts and contusions.

Willard later left the hospital, although he had not been discharged, police said. Advised by hospital authorities, police located him in a tavern on W. 6th St. and took him to jail on an intoxication charge.

Willard later gave a statement in which he named Boyd as the driver, police said. Confronted with his friend's statement, Boyd admitted about 10 p. m. that he was operating the auto when it hit the guardrail, police said.

Boyd said he drove the car to Smith St. and abandoned it after the crash, then walked back to the scene to find how seriously Willard had been injured.

The abandoned car, a 1947 four-door owned by his brother, Bill Boyd, 724 Price St., was written off as a total loss, police said.

Boyd pleaded guilty to both charges before Judge Chertoff this morning.

The judge, in a statement from the bench, recalled that Boyd was before him a few months ago on a charge of throwing a flare from a street construction job against a house in East End. On that charge, Boyd was sentenced to 30 days in jail, but he later was released because the heating system at City Hall failed in below-zero weather, the judge recalled.

He warned Boyd that he could have been fined $200 and given a six-month term on the charge of leaving the scene of the crash.

Willie Hoppe held the title of the world's top tournament billiards player for 46 years.

gren said the Highway Department will be notified the city expects to proceed on the basis of state participation.

In his letter, Nelson first formally advised the mayor of the approval of the project by the Bureau of Public Roads, meaning the federal agency will pay half the cost.

Then he added: "Due to the acute shortage of state matching funds, I am unable to give you any information as to when this project can be financed if such matching funds are necessary."

NELSON SAID the work can proceed as soon as the plans are completed if the city wishes to assume all costs not being paid by the federal agency. But if the city waits on state matching funds the contract date "is uncertain," he added.

Nelson also outlined the procedure between the city and the state for executing a contract with a consultant to prepare the plans.

The division engineer said he expects to discuss the project further with the city officials in a visit here Friday at 3 p. m. to inspect the River Rd.

Thomas M. Gamble, 26, and David J. Craig, 21, both of Dayton, were sentenced Wednesday to nine and seven years, respectively. Paul Eddie House, 22, Yellow Springs, and Ronald E. White, 23, also of Yellow Springs, both were sentenced to six years.

West Virginia Will Tighten Driver Tests

CHARLESTON (AP) — Beginning next Wednesday, the examination for drivers' licenses will be revised and tightened in West Virginia.

The state police and Motor Vehicles Department said a 12-question written test will replace the oral examination. Behind - the - wheel examination also will be more detailed.

The objective is to bring West Virginia's system in line with most states. The written test questions will be from a driver's handbook which applicants can obtain from the state police or Motor Vehicles Department.

Motor Vehicles Commissioner Jack A. Nuckols also announced it was "highly possible" that drivers may be required to appear in person to renew licenses under another revision being studied.

This would give the state better control over drivers with physical defects and make sure that licenses are issued to "those who apply for them".

Hancock Sheriff Hits State Boost In Speed Limits

Hancock County Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny today described as "outrageous" the increasing of speed limits in Newell by the State Road Commission.

New signs raising the speed limits on the section of Route 66 through Newell to 40 and 30 miles-per-hour were posted Tuesday by the state road crews.

The previous maximum speed allowed was 25 miles, the sheriff said.

Manypenny said his office was not advised of the change in speed limits. He added the only signs posted in the area of Wells High School read "School" and do not set a maximum speed limit of 15 miles-per-hour that is generally required.

Declaring that the higher speed limits create danger for Newell motorists and pedestrians, the sheriff said he plans to circulate petitions opposing the action and send them to the State Road Commission.

Who Will Rescue Dear Old Sam?

To understand Laos it is necessary to remember that in 1954 the first item of U.S. business was to stop the losing war France was fighting in Indo-China.

The alternative was to send U.S. troops to Indo-China, which had been proposed by hot-headed militarists and even some fiery civilians. The negotiations were so delicate that Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, whose starchily moral positions had irritated U.S. allies and infuriated its enemies, stepped aside for his undersecretary, the late Walter Bedell Smith.

The negotiations took place in Geneva. The war was stopped in July by a truce whose terms were unrealistic and unworkable. But France was able to extricate itself from a dilemma, and that was the objective. As for truce terms, everybody hoped for the best, including the native Communists. They alone had reason to hope for the best.

ACCORDING to the terms, Communists were to respect the territorial and political integrity of Laos, which was to be "demilitarized." But in fact Communists were left in control of the whole area because they lived there or lived nearby.

It was a certainty they would break down the truce one piece at a time until nothing remained and militarization was re-established.

It was a certainty the United States would be left holding the bag if Communist subversion became an issue. This has happened in South Viet Nam.

The question at the moment is whether it will happen in Laos.

NO ONE CLAIMS the United States can win anything by fighting in Laos. The question is how much it might lose by not fighting.

In 1954, the big thing was to extricate the French, who couldn't win either.

Who will extricate the United States from South Viet Nam and Laos?

Cleanup Time

Spring cleanup campaigns are under way or in the offing in most district communities.

Municipal services are being made available so that refuse accumulated during the winter can be hauled away. Householders should take advantage of the opportunity to clean up and fix up with the aid of a big helping hand.

Through the campaigns, the trash will be disposed of in a proper manner and not dumped indiscriminately and illegally.

It's amazing how much can be accomplished in the way of civic improvement by well-coordinated programs of this nature.

A lot of planning and hard work has gone into the drives. It's up to the individual householder to use them to the best advantage for themselves and for the community in which they reside.

A One-Man Pentagon

A near-hilarious account of his association with the late Gen. John J. Pershing when the latter was Army chief of staff after World War qualifies Col. J. Thomas Schneider, now a Washington lawyer, as an expert in Parkinson's Law.

Col. Schneider describes how he operated as a one-man Pentagon under Gen. Pershing's orders after World War I. The military bureaucracy that now sets the pace for Washington jobholding was unknown. He handled public relations, congressional relations, social relations — and relations. He even ran the general's household.

Parkinson's Law had not been enunciated. It's the "law" that says work expands to fill the time allotted for its performance. Or, more to the point, government jobholders multiply to consume the appropriation allotted for their department.

"Since defense days," muses Col. Schneider, "our defense establishment has grown to awesome proportions. And, looking back, I am reassured to know that the territory I spread over so thinly is now covered so thoroughly. I can only hope that some of those multitudes who are desperately attempting to fill my measly $250-a-month job will have a moment of amusement as they look back at the humble, sometimes hopeless beginnings of their great establishment."

The Silver Beaver

William Rayburn of Calcutta and Jack V. Hovis of Salem have every right to be proud of the Silver Beaver award they received for their part in furthering Boy Scout activities.

The honor is especially significant in view of the extensive program conducted year after year by the Columbiana County Boy Scout Council.

The long list of Scouting achievements credited to the two men indicates clearly why they were chosen to receive the Silver Beaver.

They rightfully may take their places with those who have preceded them as recipients of the coveted award. The Boy Scout movement is in good hands with capable men like Mr. Rayburn and Mr. Hovis supporting it to the limit.

Worth 10 Million

By Truman Twill

The "nation's capital," as Washington likes to be called, is the April mecca for the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Association of American Shipbuilders and the American Society of Newspaper Editors, as well as a million shouting, handholding, camera-bearing school kids.

Fortunately, the city is large enough to accommodate all these and more without loss of composure. There is no way to tell the visitors from the natives when the former take off their badges and park their cameras. For all I know, the babe with the poodle might have been a patriot.

Naturally—and inevitably—visitors gravitate to the places most worth seeing. They hang on the White House fence, swarm up the steps of the Capitol, gaze upward at the great statue in the Lincoln Memorial and saunter around the periphery of the reflecting basin while admiring the simple beauty of the Jefferson Memorial.

It is in their behalf that this April visitor to Washington would like to make a proposal that would cost only a few thousand dollars. For a city on which money is lavished like a king's mistress, a few thousand dollars might make no impression, so make it a few million.

There should be glass-enclosed maps erected in places where sauntering tourists take their bearings. The map should tell the tourist where he is and make it easy for him to know how to get where he wants to be.

A gadget in the London Underground makes it possible for a traveler to press a button and find out how to go from where he is to his destination. A model of the Underground lights up to show the way—what train to take, where to change lines—the whole procedure.

This is not being proposed for Washington.

But the tourist mecca of every school child and grownup rubbernecker should be geared to visitors' needs, and first and foremost of these is the need to be oriented.

If it weren't so preposterous, universal use of their automobiles by tourists who drive to Washington to see the sights would justify supermaps erected at main intersections to show driver where they are and which way to turn to get to key points of interest.

The city is worth seeing. The "nation's capital" is worthy of its fame.

This April it was hard to find a magnolia tree or an azalea to admire without seeing a new building in the background. The skyline is jagged with cranes swinging building material into place.

Urbanized Washington is a big city—1,808,000 in the 1960 census. This was broken down into only 763,000 inside the city, fewer than the population in 1950, and all the rest outside.

Like every other place where the auto is handled like a sacred cow, the place is a traffic nightmare. But it is always worth visiting. It is best seen on foot if the feet are willing and able.

. . . if only they would erect little maps to tell pedestrians where they are and which way they're facing so they would know what they were doing. Even if it cost 10 million it would be worth it to us two-bit taxpayers who see "our capital" on foot.

Letter From Max

By Martin Miller

Dear Truman Twill:

There you go again trying to mix me up. Out of one side of your mouth, you qualify for my varsity team of malcontents — and where would we be without malcontents? Then out of the other side of your mouth, you stick up for umpires. Watch that straddle, Twill, or you'll be ripped in two.

That article you had about prices being so high that most of us can't afford to live in America anymore sure was good for a laugh. The truth is that, item for item, such things as knives, kitchen utensils, clothing, farm implements and bare household necessities cost just about the same now and maybe less in some cases, as they cost 150 years ago.

The trouble is, as you hinted, there is a greater variety of items in general use nowadays and everybody wants everything. Try telling some of the thousands waiting on the immigration lists that they are foolish for wanting to enter this country because things are terrible here.

However, don't let this convert you from being a malcontent, because once you get completely satisfied you'll settle back and grow fat, lazy and useless. If no one had ever been discontented, we'd still be living in caves, waiting for lightning to start a fire for us.

This old lover-hater of umpires congratulates you on putting in a plug for those much-maligned arbiters, although if no one had ever questioned an umpire we might be living under one of the Caesars.

For every judge or umpire remembered in history, there are 10 or more famous malcontents. What was the name of the judge who sentenced John Brown after Harpers Ferry? No fair looking it up. Whom do we revere more, George Washington or George III? There was a real malcontent for you—George Washington.

If I am not careful, Malcontens, Inc., is going to lift my card for un-malcontent behavior.

Cuba, Laos Get Different U.S. Action

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Most Americans can't pinpoint Laos on a world map. They know it's somewhere in Southeast Asia. Yet they read in the newspapers that American Marines are being rushed to the area, that American soldiers have been losing their lives next door in South Viet Nam, and that the President of the United States is engaged in serious discussions which are indicative of a crisis with the Soviet Union about Laos.

David Lawrence

In contrast, just 90 miles away is Cuba, where the Soviet Union has between 10,000 and 20,000 troops and technicians and the latest weapons of warfare, but the United States hesitates to invade Cuba, though it is apparently ready to threaten the use of military force in Laos.

It isn't explained just why it is an "act of war" to invade Cuba, but isn't an act of war to use troops in Southeast Asia.

Nor is it clear to anybody just why "international complications and the "escalation" from one stage in the crisis to another isn't feared with respect to Laos, but is given as the reason for American hesitation in Cuba.

The foreign policy of the United States today toward Russia is a mixture of strong words at times and long periods of inaction. The strange attitude with reference to Cuba because of a fear of offending the Soviet Union is, of course, explained in the hackneyed phrases of diplomacy.

In the one case, it is argued that Thailand — next door to Laos — has "invited" American help, while, in the case of Cuba, it is pointed out that Castro has "invited" Soviet help.

THERE IS in both situations an anomaly. For the government in Cuba doesn't represent the people, and in Laos the "neutralist" government has been threatened from within by a Communist takeover, and it isn't clear just what any government in that area represents.

There is an unwillingness in Washington, however, to recognize the Communists as the true enemies of the people in both Laos and Cuba.

Although, for instance, the United States has addressed several communications to Moscow about the missiles and the continued presence of Soviet troops in Cuba, there is no inclination to use force to clean up the situation there.

With respect to Laos, however, the United States Navy is moving into the area with thousands of Marines and there is a definite threat to take military action.

American officials state flatly that the Communists have broken the truce in Laos.

Meanwhile, the debate inside and outside of Congress continues as to whether invasion would mean a big war over Cuba but for some reason there is little talk of a big war arising when the United States undertakes military steps to thwart Communist imperialism in Laos.

THE KENNEDY administration is well aware of the pressure of public opinion for a more determined policy with respect to Cuba. There is no doubt that public opinion outside the United States is manifesting an increasing disapproval of Washington's attitude of watchful waiting and indifference to Communist encroachment.

In the last few days, Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., leader in the Senate, has come out in favor of an economic embargo against Cuba by all countries in this hemisphere.

He wouldn't have made such a statement without the approval of the President. The plan undoubtedly is to mobilize sentiment behind the whole idea as the United States, through diplomatic channels, begins to urge the Latin-American countries to organize an economic boycott against Cuba under the auspices of the Organization of American States.

THIS, HOWEVER, is a long and tedious process and looks like a temporary scheme to answer the criticism about a "do-nothing" policy. After several months it will become apparent that an economic embargo against Cuba is hardly effective. When and if, as Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-SC, has urged, the United States faces up to the Communist threat everywhere and begins to consider a severance of diplomatic relations with the Soviet government, then — and only then — will situations such as have arisen in Laos and in Cuba begin to be changed from defeat to victory for the free world.

Union Opens Drive On Hospital Staffs

By VICTOR RIESEL

Those who report that labor's strength is waning and its organizing drives need blood transfusions have not been hedgehopping this nation recently. From coast to coast, organizers are unleashing unionizing campaigns aimed at signing up millions of new members in the next few years.

Victor Riesel

But no drive will stir as much excitement in the hearts of the big cities as that directed at the unionization of thousands of hospitals, medical centers, research institutions and laboratories. Most of these are nonprofit. Most are owned by Protestant, Catholic and Jewish ecclesiastical and nonchurch groups.

If successful, eventually, the union which signs up the nation's 7,000 hospitals — of which 3,599 are voluntary nonprofit institutions — could become one of the nation's top four or five labor organizations. In all, there are 1.5 million nonprofessional medical employes.

Of these, some 900,000 persons work for the voluntary hospitals.

A FULL-SCALE national drive is a long way off, but when the history of so controversial a campaign is written it will be shown that this moment in New York marks the beginnings of this push.

And pushing hard is the militant, often-excoriated Drug and Hospital Employes Local 1199, AFL-CIO, led by one Leon Davis, who served a month in prison for defying an anti-hospital-picketing order of the court.

At the moment the 51-year-old Davis, recovering from a heart attack, and his colleagues are quietly and privately negotiating contracts with 12 major New York hospitals.

On July 1, the union will open a drive for 30 of New York's 85 nonunion voluntary hospitals. Thus it will be taking on some of the most influential religious, civic and business leaders in the giant community.

THE HOSPITAL employes union's goal is set at adding some 37,000 people to its list of 8,500 already signed up here. The local is eager for the widest membership.

Generally the impression gotten from the union's swift strikes and long sit-ins, is that Davis and his people are signing only the housekeeping and culinary workers.

Actually the union's organizing strategy calls for the signing up of hospital employes ranging right across the board — except for doctors and nurses.

Local 1199 is going after the technicians — the x-ray people, the dieticians, the operating room personnel, laboratory experts, personnel in the blood banks, cardiopulmonary labs, medical and research departments, accounting offices, cashiers, IBM machine operators, Blue Cross clerks, etc.

IF SUCCESSFUL in New York City, the local would have a total membership of more than 60,000. Thus it would be one of the nation's largest. Already it is expanding from the second floor of its three-story building in mid-Manhattan to the rest of the edifice.

Its leaders now talk only of the metropolitan drive. It will be difficult because under the new law just signed by Gov. Nelson Rockefeller they cannot strike, though they now have the right to attempt to unionize and demand collective bargaining contracts from the nonprofit institutions.

Many are run by the Catholic Archdiocese, by the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies, and by affiliates of Protestant denominations. Under the new statute, all grievances must be submitted to final arbitration.

If successful, few doubt that the union would attempt to move throughout the state. Above the New York City line the voluntary hospitals employ some 70,000 people. Thus success upstate would give the union 115,000 members.

IT WOULD not be wrong to anticipate a national drive after that. Joining with the New York local would be other AFL-CIO unions which are part of one or another of the AFL-CIO's or Walter Reuther's Industrial Union Dept.'s selective recruiting drives.

Today only some 350 of the country's 7,000 hospitals are unionized. Some are in Wisconsin, some in Minnesota, and others in San Francisco.

Less spectacular, but just as vital, is a campaign by the national AFL-CIO itself for labor representation on the boards of the hospitals. The national labor leaders believe that the hospitals are at the very heart of community activity. And they want to be right in it for many obvious reasons.

Thus, in effect, all this becomes part of the new "white collar" national drive. It all marks a new era as hundreds of thousands of people — once believed unorganizable — are signed up and bolster labor's ranks.

Looking Down

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

President Kennedy has some sunny times, when things are looking up, but Wednesday's news conference wasn't one of them.

Things were looking rather down in most of his answers to the main questions asked him about foreign affairs. It was only on domestic problems that he showed any optimism.

But three very important events since Kennedy's last meeting with newsmen April 3 didn't come up at Wednesday's session:

The steel industry raised prices, with Kennedy's consent; the atomic submarine Thresher sank with 129 men aboard; and the reported inclusion of three Central Intelligence Agents in this week's swap of Cuban and U.S. prisoners; four Cubans for 27 Americans.

No one at the news conference asked the President anything about the steel price increase and the mystery of the sunken Thresher wasn't mentioned at all.

He was asked only indirectly about the prisoner swap, and in this way:

Now that the Americans have been released, what will American policy be toward letting Cuban exiles in this country resume their hit-and-run raids on Cuba?

Kennedy brushed it off. He said discussions wouldn't be useful, but at another point said unleashing the exiles "cannot do the job."

He could have been asked to explain in some detail about the arrangements for the prisoner swap and if anything more than just the exchange lay behind it.

The President was dim on hopes for a nuclear test ban agreement with Russia, indicated no interest in a summit meeting with Premier Khrushchev or in a meeting with French President Charles de Gaulle at this time.

He was vague on hopes for getting rid of Castro or finding peace in Laos.

In a limited way he was optimistic about what Congress will do to his programs; he thinks money spent on space is worthwhile; and he thinks the economy is growing stronger.

Nuclear test ban—he wasn't very "sanguine" about getting Khrushchev to agree to one this spring. He said "we feel time is running out."

"If we fail in Laos," he said, "I would think the prospects for accords on matters which may be geographically closer to us would be substantially lessened."

A summit meeting with Khrushchev—Kennedy said none is planned and "it doesn't seem to me it would be useful unless we were in agreement upon a test ban, which we are not now."

Castro—Wednesday, as before, Kennedy gave no indication this country intends to do any more than it is doing now to get rid of the Communist dictator. And what it is doing now isn't getting rid of him.

De Gaulle—Kennedy showed no enthusiasm for a meeting with the Frenchman who threw the Allies into confusion by banning Britain from the Common Market and insists on developing his own nuclear weapons.

What Kennedy said in effect was: If the United States and France have anything to discuss, let their foreign ministers discuss it.

A 'Quiet Sun'

American scientists are planning another research assault on earth's life-giving neighbor, the sun.

Along with more than 50 nations, the United States will participate in the International Years of the Quiet Sun, a sequel to the International Geophysical Year's work on earth-sun relations.

The two-year program, called IQSY, will begin Jan. 1, 1964, when sunspot and solar flare activity is at a low point. These gas storms on the sun's surface occur in cycles of about 11 years. At their peak, sunspots and solar flares release bursts of electrified particles that disrupt radio communications, make night skies bright with auroras and upset the earth's magnetic fields.

A principal objective of the IQSY will be to compare the data gathered when the sun is "quiet" with that from IGY in 1957-58, when solar activity was at its highest level in 200 years. A high-low reference scale could be of great value in gauging solar radiation hazards in manned space flights and might improve weather forecasting and radio communications.

New techniques — developed since the IGY — in instrument-carrying satellites, sounding rockets and radar promise a better-than-ever look at the sun's surface.

The largest meat - eating animal in the world is the Kodiak bear, which may weigh up to 1,600 pounds, measure nine feet in length, and stand four feet inches at the shoulder.

In the literary world, a "blurb" is a coined expression which is applied to all the complimentary comments that a publisher assembles on the jacket of a book.

Hair Styling Slated In Mrs. America Test

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The 51 contestants in the Mrs. America contest do up their hair three different ways for the judges today.

The hair styling competition, third of the week, requires the women to fix their hair according to a prescribed formula, then tear it down and fix it two other ways of their own choice.

The first competition, home decoration, was won by Mrs. Montana, Gloria Heggen of Ekalaka. The second, baking an apple pie from standard ingredients and recipes, was won by Wynette K. Car of Brigham City, Utah.

Winners in the individual contests pile up points toward the Mrs. America title, to be awarded Saturday night.

Arrest Of 2 Believed Solution To Burglaries

CELINA, Ohio (AP)—Officials believe a long string of burglaries at country clubs and American Legion homes in Ohio and Indiana may have been solved with the arrest of two Van Wert men.

Sheriff W. C. Lunderhauf said Wednesday that Ream Davis, 26, and Maurice Dempsey, 27, admitted staging burglaries at Maria Stein and Celina, Ohio, and at Portland, Plymouth, Nappanee and Syracuse, Ind.

The pair was arrested last Friday by officers who found burglary tools and a rifle in their car, Lunderhauf said.

Davis is on parole for breaking and entering and Dempsey is wanted in Van Wert for non-support, Lunderhauf said.

Colorado Fruit Crop Hit Hard By Frost

DENVER, Colo. (AP—A late-season frost on the Western Slope of the Rocky Mountains wiped out most of Colorado's fruit crop, causing a loss of more than $6 million.

Paul W. Swisher, state agriculture commissioner, reported this Wednesday. He said more than 1,100 families depend for their income on peach, cherry and apricot crops.

Swisher said the fruit was damaged extensively by the severe winter, "and what was left was wiped out by a late frost last Thursday."

West Virginia Will Tighten Driver Tests

CHARLESTON (AP) — Beginning next Wednesday, the examination for drivers' licenses will be revised and tightened in West Virginia.

The state police and Motor Vehicles Department said a 12-question written test will replace the oral examination. Behind - the - wheel examination also will be more detailed.

The objective is to bring West Virginia's system in line with most states. The written test questions will be from a driver's handbook which applicants can obtain from the state police or Motor Vehicles Department.

Motor Vehicles Commissioner Jack A. Nuckols also announced it was "highly possible" that drivers may be required to appear in person to renew licenses under another revision being studied.

This would give the state better control over drivers with physical defects and make sure that licenses are issued to "those who apply for them".

Hancock Sheriff Hits State Boost In Speed Limits

Hancock County Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny today described as "outrageous" the increasing of speed limits in Newell by the State Road Commission.

New signs raising the speed limits on the section of Route 66 through Newell to 40 and 30 miles-per-hour were posted Tuesday by the state road crews.

The previous maximum speed allowed was 25 miles, the sheriff said.

Manypenny said his office was not advised of the change in speed limits. He added the only signs posted in the area of Wells High School read "School" and do not set a maximum speed limit of 15 miles-per-hour that is generally required.

Declaring that the higher speed limits create danger for Newell motorists and pedestrians, the sheriff said he plans to circulate petitions opposing the action and send them to the State Road Commission.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: I have learned that if you take a pie tin, line it with foil — crumpling the foil a little on the bottom—bake your breakfast sausage on it while your biscuits are cooking!

The sausage will be moist, not hard and crisp and it will have a wonderful flavor. We find it quite different than when frying it.

The reason for crumpling the foil is so the grease can drip away from the sausage and will stay in the fold of the crumpled foil. We find that frying sausage on a flat surface is what makes it greasy!

MRS. F.

DEAR HELOISE: When the stoppers on my perfume bottles are stuck I place them in the refrigerator until thoroughly cold and then remove the stopper. I have also found that if I twist the stopper back and forth when inserting it, it helps prevent sticking.

MRS. H. L.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: When giving a child a pill ... . and most children have trouble swallowing them . . . I wonder if you have ever thought about cutting off a piece of banana and inserting the pill in the center of the banana and then giving it to the child such as you would a lollypop? It works with mine.

FRANCES ARMS.

DEAR GALS: Please do not clean plastic cups and dishes with steel wool. This only ruins the finish.

The manufacturers of these plastic dishes write to me that even scouring powders and bleaches will ruin them. Once the finish has been removed there is nothing you can do. They suggest using only baking soda or a special product made for this purpose.

To use baking soda one dips a damp cloth into regular soda and polishes as if they were cleaning silver.

Receiving Blanket

DEAR HELOISE: Here is a little trick for anyone who likes to sew and is faced with the problem . . . what to give at that baby shower next week!

Buy a yard-and-a-quarter of corduroy and some matching blanket binding.

Sew the binding around the edge of the corduroy either by hand with a pretty stitch or by machine.

My sister, who had this great idea in the first place . . . uses the fancy stitches of her sewing machine. The results are just lovely, inexpensive and the best receiving blanket ever made yet . . . .

This blanket will be larger than the "store bought" kind, lint free and will wash beautifully in your washing machine.

My 3-year-old is still using the original gift from her . . . even after daily use — both in winter and summer!

Lucky Mother will never stop singing your praises for such a practical gift. These aren't bought in stores!

PEGGY WILLIAMS.

DEAR HELOISE. Look into any one of my purses and you will invariably find a square of foil wrap!

Carrying a square of foil has become such a habit, that I feel uneasy leaving the house without one.

I have found over the years of visiting, traveling, shopping or sitting in numerous and sundry waiting rooms . . . have you ever lit a cigarette in a strange house while waiting for your host or hostess to appear, then look wildly around for an ashtray?

Should we put those ashes in our shoe? In that china vase on the window sill? Or in that hand painted dish on the self?

Or have you ever tried balancing your cigarette, gingerly, scarcely daring to breath, while the ash grows longer and longer hoping the hostess will arrive before too late?

I simply tear a piece of foil from the little piece I carry in my purse, crinkle the edges and I have a useful, handy, disposal ashtray. These may be folded into a tiny ball, replaced in your purse and discarded later.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I cannot discuss this problem with anyone else because I'm ashamed to admit the situation exists.

We have a 2-year-old boy and a 4-month-old daughter. My wife adores the boy and keeps him immaculate. She's always cuddling him or playing with him. She brags about him to friends and relatives and it's plain to see she worships the little guy.

My wife ignores our little girl completely. The child often is lying in soiled clothing when I come home. She cries all the time. I sometimes wonder if she has been fed. The child has a rash on her legs which the doctor says is from neglect. My wife keeps "forgetting" to get the medicine he prescribed. I finally went out and got it myself.

I'm afraid my wife dislikes this child and is not caring for her properly. Is it possible for a mother to feel this way? Please give me some help. I am deeply concerned.—J.L.

Dear J.L.: Your wife's attitude toward the little girl is indeed "unnatural." It's sick. Her resentment against the child is a transference of hostility and anger which is rooted elsewhere.

Your wife needs professional help at once and I hope you will see that she gets it. Very young children must have love and affection. They can be permanently scarred if they are not given emotional support.

Contents Noted

Dear Ann: I know you never will print this because it's easy to see what side you are on.

Why did you publish all those letters about "Old Gaffers" making it appear as if they are the dangerous drivers — a threat to life and limb?

Anyone who has an ounce of sense knows the teen-age punks are the guilty ones. This is why insurance rates are sky high for drivers under 25.

A recent survey showed that 7 out of 10 boys between 16 and 25 years of age have been involved in a major accident. Only 2 out of 10 old gaffers had been in wrecks.

I'd risk my neck any day with a 75-year-old gaffer before I'd ride with a 17-year-old punk who has to rev up a piece of junk just to get the thrill of speeding.

Too bad this letter will go into your wastebasket instead of in the newspaper where it belongs.—MILLION-MILE GAFFER WITH NO WRECK.

Dear No Wreck: You drive a lot better than you read, dad. I made it clear the "Old Gaffers" letters were expressions from readers and did not reflect my point of view.

Every survey I have seen proves the drivers in their teens are far more dangerous than the senior citizens.

In Love With Uncle

Dear Ann: I am 18 and look and act older. My Uncle Wally is 36 but looks and acts younger. He has told me he loves me and I'm sure I love him. He is not a blood relative, but an uncle by marriage. Uncle Wally married my dad's sister 10 years ago. This was a second marriage for both.

My aunt is a pleasant person but she is lazy and sloppy. They fight most of the time because she won't cook or keep house.

I know Uncle Wally and I could be happy together and he will marry me if I say the word. Boys my own age are a bore. Please tell me our love is real. Thank you.—PATTY.

Dear Patty: Your love is real, all right. Real nothing. You are fiddling around with a married man twice your age — a two-time loser — and an uncle at that.

Where are your parents, anyway? Stop seeing this moron at once or you'll be in more trouble than you need.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The larynx is the organ of voice in human beings.

Annual Spring Event

ELHS Band, Orchestra Concert Slated Friday

The annual spring concert of East Liverpool High School band and orchestra will be held Friday at 8 p. m. at the Memorial Auditorium under the direction of Vincent L. Maola, instrumental music supervisor of the city schools and director of the senior high instrumental groups. The concert is free to the public.

"The program is designed to give the listener an opportunity to hear music of many types and styles," Maola said.

The orchestra will begin the program with Theron Kirk's "Vignettes for Orchestra; "Shangri-La," arranged for the high school orchestra by Robert Hill, and "Moods Americana," written by Gerald Hummel, an Ohioan.

The band will open its program with a modern march, "March and Chorale" (Washburn), followed with the national anthem of Finland and a composition of serious concert music, "Finlandia" (Sibelius).

Appearing as clarinet soloist with the Varsity Concert Band is Ted Waters, a senior, who will perform the Cavallini work arranged by Georg Waln of Oberlin College, and "Adagio and Tarantella" for clarinet and band. To the music of folk nature for the selection by Leroy Anderson will be "The Rakes of Mallow."

Music of modern nature will follow in a four - movement number written by Vincent Persichetti for Ithaca College's Concert Band, "Bagatelles for Band."

Another senior soloist with the band will be Darrel Locke, who will play "The Piano Concerto In A Minor" (Grieg).

A light, gay number, "The Bossa Nova," written by Harold Walters, will lead to the the final number by Paul Whear, "Jedermann Overture."

The presentation of awards will follow and will include the Joe Thornberry Memorial award for the outstanding senior in band and orchestra.

A plaque will be presented the recipient and his name added to the plaque given by the ELHS Band and Orchestra Mothers this year to list past recipients.

Len Birns, drum major, will direct "Beautiful Ohio" to close the program.

Traffic control at the Hancock County oval was handled in past racing seasons by deputies from the office of Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny.

Traffic was snarled badly in both Hancock County and East Liverpool for several days after the track opened March 16.

City Proceeds With Cleanup At Wellsville

The city's phase of a cleanup campaign is progressing satisfactorily in Wellsville, according to Safety-Service Director Fred Baldasare.

He said the old-fashioned push-cart was being utilized today in cleaning the city square at 4th St. It also will be used on Main St. from 9th St. west.

The mechanical sweeper will cover Lisbon St. from 3rd to 4th Sts., Anderson Ave. from 10th to 13th Sts. and White St. from 11th to 12th Sts. from 4 p. m. to midnight.

Several side streets were cleaned last night. The sweeper was not able to get to 14th St., as scheduled, but this will be done today. Baldasare asked for cooperation in cleaning 14th, as many cars are parked in the area. These will have to be moved before the sweeper can operate, he said.

Work should be completed today on cleaning a clogged storm sewer on Highland Heights.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Who Says Woman Can't Keep Secret?

Secret dieting can add an unexpected fillip to reducing. Today's letter from a homemaker who is getting a brighter outlook on the future, sparks a challenge.

Ida Jean Kain

"I would like to say thanks to you by sharing with your other readers a plan by which I have managed to lose some excess poundage.

"At the holidays, when I attended a meeting of the ladies of our church, I was so envious of one of the women there I could hardly stand it. This lady had lost 30 pounds over a period of five months and she really looked neat in a sheath skirt.

"I felt so dumpy and fat by comparison that I couldn't get my mind on the meeting. Then and there I made up my mind to go on a diet and lose weight. Since we had the holidays to go through, I decided that the first of the year would be an ideal time to start.

"I WENT TO see my family doctor on December 28th, and asked for a diet sheet and instruction. On January 2nd I started on my 1,000 calorie diet.

"I planned my slimming meals in advance. I count every calorie and write it down. Keeping score on the calories is a tremendous help.

"But what has helped me most of all has been my not telling anyone that I am dieting. I did not tell my husband! Always before I would tell him and he would go from one extreme to another.

"He would either tempt me with rich foods or watch every bite I would take and if I ate any little thing that I shouldn't he would say, 'Paying good money to the doctor to lose weight and there you are eating.' Needless to say, my reaction would be 'Oh what's the use!' and back I would go to my old eating habits.

"Well, this time I didn't say a word to him. I know that he knows it, but he's too stubborn to mention it and I'll not tell him. When I married him eleven years ago I weighed 124 pounds. At the time I started this diet I weighed 222 pounds . . . a gain of 98 pounds.

"So far I have lost 32 pounds, and have 50 more to go. I am 5 feet 7 with a medium frame. If I can get to 140 pounds I'll be right weight and happy. I also take daily exercises which help to tone me up as I slim down.

"I hope this letter will help other women who need to lose weight to get started on the right track. Thank you again for your wonderful column."

FRIENDS, WOULDN'T you like to shake the hand of this spirited gal? I surely would! I admire her courage . . . I glory in her spunk. See it through she will, and to a triumphant conclusion.

Please keep us posted! Won't you report again . . . on the 4th of July?

Send a stamped, self-addressed long envelope for "Revised Calorie Chart." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Prince Rainier, Princess Relax

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Prince Rainier III of Monaco and Princess Grace relax with their children and the princess' family today. It was the first time since their arrival last week that they didn't have a planned function to attend.

There are reports the prince will attend the Kentucky Derby May 4 and that the family will visit the summer home of the princess' mother, Mrs. John B. Kelly Sr., in New Jersey. The princess hasn't said anything about her family's plans.

The princess, former movie actress Grace Kelly, attended the last scheduled reception Wednesday—a combination fashion show and a reunion with teachers and 19 of her classmates at the Stevens School, a girls' finishing school.

FBI Joins In Hunt For Dayton Robber

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — FBI agents, Dayton police, and Montgomery County sheriff's deputies searched today for a gun-wielding robber who held up the Citizens Savings and Loan Co. office in Dayton's East Town shopping center.

The amount taken in the holdup Wednesday was unofficially estimated at $6,500.

Sunken Spots In Route 30 Due Attention

State highway officials today said they are seeking a solution to correcting two sunken places in the paving on Route 30 between the city limits and the Pearl China Co.

Two large sections of the highway, one about 20 feet long and the other about 30 feet, dropped when the dirt beneath slid toward the creek in California Hollow. Both are on the right hand side approaching East Liverpool.

The problem has been placed in the hands of the location and design department of Division 11 of the State Highway Department at New Philadelphia.

Meanwhile, Chester Whitehouse, Columbiana County superintendent for the state highway department, said his crews are working to maintain two-way traffic until a solution is found for permanent repairs.

The condition was caused by construction of the new highway in California Hollow and when the channel of the creek was changed. The water hit against the side next to Route 30 and caused the dirt to soften. It then slid from beneath the highway.

The condition is not improving, he said. It started about six weeks ago.

Dairy Princess Contest Planned

LISBON — Entries are now being received for the Ohio Dairy Princess contest, sponsored by the state unit of the American Dairy Association. The rules require that the parents derive at least a part of their income from dairy farming, according to Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

The Columbiana County Dairymen's Council is sponsoring the local contest and entrants must be at least 16 by Oct. 1, and not be over 25 as of that date. They must never have been married and must be a high school student or will graduate in June.

The local winner will represent the county at the state contest at Columbus in June. The state dairy princess makes public appearances throughout the year at various events in behalf of the dairy industry, Myers said.

Entry forms may be obtained at the co-operative extension office and must be returned by June 1.

VFW Will Sell Flags For Veterans Graves

Pvt. Eddy VFW Post said today it will continue this year with a program for placing flags for Memorial Day on veterans' graves at Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Anyone desiring to buy a flag for the grave of a veteran buried at the park may contact Harry L. Simpson at FU. 5-0062 or FU. 6-6963. The flags are weatherproof 3-x-5 feet, mounted on 10 - foot poles. To be flown on various holidays, the flags will be stored at the park. Further information may be obtained from Simpson. The deadline for the orders will be May 15 to allow time for the flags to arrive and bases to be provided in the ground.

The flags are placed around the fountain at present and it is hoped to line the entire road, Simpson said.

Ohioan, 102, Takes His Sixth Bride, 82

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Charles A. Wilson has taken a wife for the sixth time, proclaiming that "no man should live alone."

Wilson is 102, and his bride, the former Fannie E. Russell, is 82. They were married in Franklin County Probate Court Wednesday.

Wilson, who said he was born near Spartanburg, N. C., July 15, 1860, became the father of 13 children in his five previous marriages. Mrs. Wilson, a widow for 15 years, had 18 children of her own and adopted two others.

The junior high school band and senior high school band will perform, along with the Crestview Chorus and ensembles.

A feature will be a combined senior band and chorus selection, and a combined junior and senior band number. Mrs. Ellen Wilhelm is choral director, and Joe Danko band director.

License Plate Funds Net County $552,143

Columbiana County's share of the first advanced distribution of 1963 license plate funds amounts to $552,143, according to a report from Ohio Registrar Dave Mainwaring.

The distribution is scheduled before the end of the month, Mainwaring said. The statewide distribution totals $46 million, of which $32.9 million will go to counties and $13 million to municipalities.

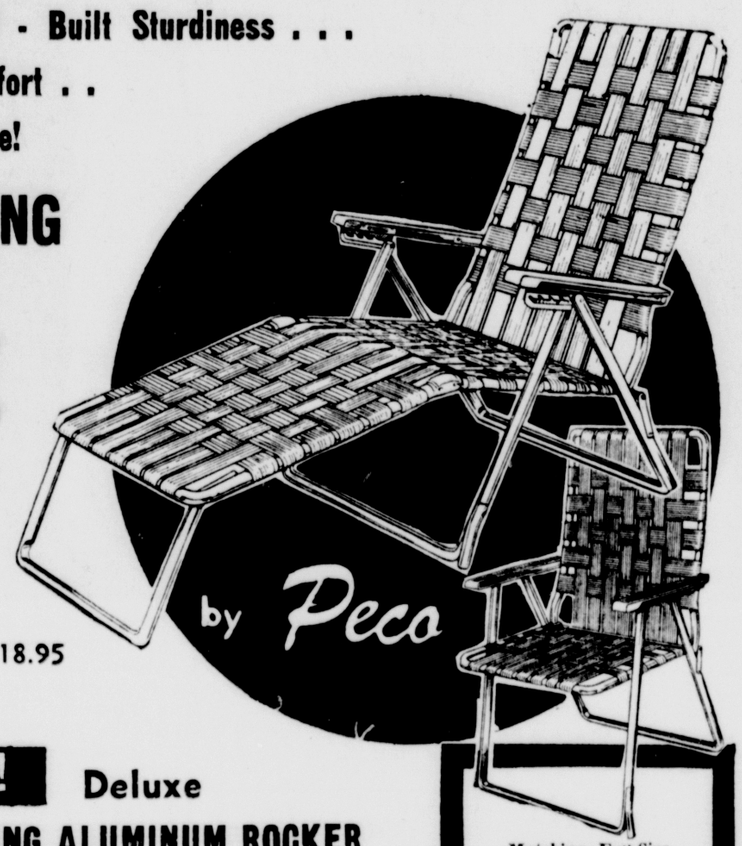

Later an additional $7.5 million will be distributed to counties and townships, he said.

Hair Styling Slated In Mrs. America Test

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The 51 contestants in the Mrs. America contest do up their hair three different ways for the judges today.

The hair styling competition, third of the week, requires the women to fix their hair according to a prescribed formula, then tear it down and fix it two other ways of their own choice.

The first competition, home decoration, was won by Mrs. Montana, Gloria Heggen of Ekalaka. The second, baking an apple pie from standard ingredients and recipes, was won by Wynette K. Car of Brigham City, Utah.

Winners in the individual contests pile up points toward the Mrs. America title, to be awarded Saturday night.

Both the North American Lake Superior and the African Lake Tanganyika claim the distinction of the longest in the world. Each measures about 400 miles in length.

Arrest Of 2 Believed Solution To Burglaries

CELINA, Ohio (AP)—Officials believe a long string of burglaries at country clubs and American Legion homes in Ohio and Indiana may have been solved with the arrest of two Van Wert men.

Sheriff W. C. Lunderhauf said Wednesday that Ream Davis, 26, and Maurice Dempsey, 27, admitted staging burglaries at Maria Stein and Celina, Ohio, and at Portland, Plymouth, Nappanee and Syracuse, Ind.

The pair was arrested last Friday by officers who found burglary tools and a rifle in their car, Lunderhauf said.

Davis is on parole for breaking and entering and Dempsey is wanted in Van Wert for non-support, Lunderhauf said.

Employment Up

CLEVELAND (AP) — Employment during March increased by 4,700 over the previous month to 676,200 in greater Cleveland and Lake County, the Ohio State Employment Service reports.

Colorado Fruit Crop Hit Hard By Frost

DENVER, Colo. (AP—A late-season frost on the Western Slope of the Rocky Mountains wiped out most of Colorado's fruit crop, causing a loss of more than $6 million.

Paul W. Swisher, state agriculture commissioner, reported this Wednesday. He said more than 1,100 families depend for their income on peach, cherry and apricot crops.

Swisher said the fruit was damaged extensively by the severe winter, "and what was left was wiped out by a late frost last Thursday."

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: I have learned that if you take a pie tin, line it with foil — crumpling the foil a little on the bottom—bake your breakfast sausage on it while your biscuits are cooking!

The sausage will be moist, not hard and crisp and it will have a wonderful flavor. We find it quite different than when frying it.

The reason for crumpling the foil is so the grease can drip away from the sausage and will stay in the fold of the crumpled foil. We find that frying sausage on a flat surface is what makes it greasy!

MRS. F.

DEAR HELOISE: When the stoppers on my perfume bottles are stuck I place them in the refrigerator until thoroughly cold and then remove the stopper. I have also found that if I twist the stopper back and forth when inserting it, it helps prevent sticking.

MRS. H. L.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: When giving a child a pill ... . and most children have trouble swallowing them . . . I wonder if you have ever thought about cutting off a piece of banana and inserting the pill in the center of the banana and then giving it to the child such as you would a lollypop? It works with mine.

FRANCES ARMS.

DEAR GALS: Please do not clean plastic cups and dishes with steel wool. This only ruins the finish.

The manufacturers of these plastic dishes write to me that even scouring powders and bleaches will ruin them. Once the finish has been removed there is nothing you can do. They suggest using only baking soda or a special product made for this purpose.

To use baking soda one dips a damp cloth into regular soda and polishes as if they were cleaning silver.

HELOISE.

Receiving Blanket

DEAR HELOISE: Here is a little trick for anyone who likes to sew and is faced with the problem . . . what to give at that baby shower next week!

Buy a yard-and-a-quarter of corduroy and some matching blanket binding.

My sister, who had this great idea in the first place . . . uses the fancy stitches of her sewing machine. The results are just lovely, inexpensive and the best receiving blanket ever made yet . . . .

This blanket will be larger than the "store bought" kind, lint free and will wash beautifully in your washing machine.

My 3-year-old is still using the original gift from her . . . even after daily use — both in winter and summer!

Lucky Mother will never stop singing your praises for such a practical gift. These aren't bought in stores!

PEGGY WILLIAMS.

DEAR HELOISE: Look into any one of my purses and you will invariably find a square of foil wrap!

Carrying a square of foil has become such a habit, that I feel uneasy leaving the house without one.

I have found over the years of visiting, traveling, shopping or sitting in numerous and sundry waiting rooms . . . have you ever lit a cigarette in a strange house while waiting for your host or hostess to appear, then look wildly around for an ashtray?

Should we put those ashes in our shoe? In that china vase on the window sill? Or in that hand painted dish on the self?

Or have you ever tried balancing your cigarette, gingerly, scarcely daring to breath, while the ash grows longer and longer hoping the hostess will arrive before too late?

I simply tear a piece of foil from the little piece I carry in my purse, crinkle the edges and I have a useful, handy, disposal ashtray. These may be folded into a tiny ball, replaced in your purse and discarded later.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I cannot discuss this problem with anyone else because I'm ashamed to admit the situation exists.

We have a 2-year-old boy and a 4-month-old daughter. My wife adores the boy and keeps him immaculate. She's always cuddling him or playing with him. She brags about him to friends and relatives and it's plain to see she worships the little guy.

My wife ignores our little girl completely. The child often is lying in soiled clothing when I come home. She cries all the time. I sometimes wonder if she has been fed. The child has a rash on her legs which the doctor says is from neglect. My wife keeps "forgetting" to get the medicine he prescribed. I finally went out and got it myself.

I'm afraid my wife dislikes this child and is not caring for her properly. Is it possible for a mother to feel this way? Please give me some help. I am deeply concerned.—J.L.

Dear J.L.: Your wife's attitude toward the little girl is indeed "unnatural." It's sick. Her resentment against the child is a transference of hostility and anger which is rooted elsewhere.

Your wife needs professional help at once and I hope you will see that she gets it. Very young children must have love and affection. They can be permanently scarred if they are not given emotional support.

Contents Noted

Dear Ann: I know you never will print this because it's easy to see what side you are on.

Why did you publish all those letters about "Old Gaffers" making it appear as if they are the dangerous drivers — a threat to life and limb?

Anyone who has an ounce of sense knows the teen-age punks are the guilty ones. This is why insurance rates are sky high for drivers under 25.

A recent survey showed that 7 out of 10 boys between 16 and 25 years of age have been involved in a major accident. Only 2 out of 10 old gaffers had been in wrecks.

I'd risk my neck any day with a 75-year-old gaffer before I'd ride with a 17-year-old punk who has to rev up a piece of junk just to get the thrill of speeding.

Too bad this letter will go into your wastebasket instead of in the newspaper where it belongs.—MILLION-MILE GAFFER WITH NO WRECK.

Dear No Wreck: You drive a lot better than you read, dad. I made it clear the "Old Gaffers" letters were expressions from readers and did not reflect my point of view.

Every survey I have seen proves the drivers in their teens are far more dangerous than the senior citizens.

In Love With Uncle

Dear Ann: I am 18 and look and act older. My Uncle Wally is 36 but looks and acts younger. He has told me he loves me and I'm sure I love him. He is not a blood relative, but an uncle by marriage. Uncle Wally married my dad's sister 10 years ago. This was a second marriage for both.

My aunt is a pleasant person but she is lazy and sloppy. They fight most of the time because she won't cook or keep house.

I know Uncle Wally and I could be happy together and he will marry me if I say the word. Boys my own age are a bore. Please tell me our love is real. Thank you.—PATTY.

Dear Patty: Your love is real, all right. Real nothing. You are fiddling around with a married man twice your age — a two-time loser — and an uncle at that.

Where are your parents, anyway? Stop seeing this moron at once or you'll be in more trouble than you need.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Maola, instrumental music supervisor of the city schools and director of the senior high instrumental groups. The concert is free to the public.

"The program is designed to give the listener an opportunity to hear music of many types and styles," Maola said.

The orchestra will begin the program with Theron Kirk's "Vignettes for Orchestra; "Shangri-La," arranged for the high school orchestra by Robert Hill, and "Moods Americana," written by Gerald Hummel, an Ohioan.

The band will open its program with a modern march, "March and Chorale" (Washburn), followed with the national anthem of Finland and a composition of serious concert music, "Finlandia" (Sibelius).

Appearing as clarinet soloist with the Varsity Concert Band is Ted Waters, a senior, who will perform the Cavallini work arranged by Georg Waln of Oberlin College, and "Adagio and Tarantella" for clarinet and band. To the music of folk nature for the selection by Leroy Anderson will be "The Rakes of Mallow."

Music of modern nature will follow in a four - movement number written by Vincent Persichetti for Ithaca College's Concert Band, "Bagatelles for Band."

Another senior soloist with the band will be Darrel Locke, who will play "The Piano Concerto In A Minor" (Grieg).

A light, gay number, "The Bossa Nova," written by Harold Walters, will lead to the the final number by Paul Whear, "Jedermann Overture."

The presentation of awards will follow and will include the Joe Thornberry Memorial award for the outstanding senior in band and orchestra.

A plaque will be presented the recipient and his name added to the plaque given by the ELHS Band and Orchestra Mothers this year to list past recipients.

State Police Aid Traffic At Track

West Virginia State Police from Weirton have undertaken the job of traffic control at Waterford Park race track.

Traffic control at the Hancock County oval was handled in past racing seasons by deputies from the office of Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny.

Traffic was snarled badly in both Hancock County and East Liverpool for several days after the track opened March 16.

Cpl. C. W. Tighe is heading the group of state police officers directing traffic on Route 30 and Route 66 through Chester and Newell.

In Pan-American Games

U.S. Stars Poised For More Glory

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP) — America's array of stars was poised today for more Pan-American Games glory after plucking 19 gold medals during the first five days of this fourth neighbor vs. neighbor athletic carnival.

A big splurge for gold medals is expected tonight from U.S. swimmers, who already own five of Uncle Sam's firsts in the Games which end May 5.

The swimming aces are odds-on favorites to harvest four more gold medals in the finals of the men's 200-meter butterfly and the women's 200 breaststroke, 100 freestyle and 400 freestyle.

If they are successful, U.S. athletes will have bagged at least 13 gold medals in two days, a gesture which would pretty well confirm what everyone is already thinking—that America is going to outclass completely all other countries in this year's Pan-American Games.

No other country had more than one gold medal after Wednesday's action.

The Americans put on dazzling displays Wednesday, a day good for nine gold medals, in women's springboard diving, wrestling, rifle and pistol shooting, weightlifting, baseball and men's and women's basketball.

A couple of U.S. tennis stars, Darlene Hard of Long Beach, Calif., Carole Caldwell of Santa Monica, Calif., provided the day's disappointment. Both lost in the women's singles semifinals.

Yolanda Ramirez of Mexico eliminated Miss Hard 2-6, 6-3, 6-4, and Maria Bueno of Brazil defeated Miss Caldwell 6-4, 6-1.

Barbara Ellen McAlister of Phoenix, a nifty 21-year-old brunette secretary, touched off the gold medal parade Wednesday by winning the 3-meter springboard diving championship for the Yankees, who in addition to gold medals have 10 silver and nine bronze medals.

The wrestlers grabbed three gold medals Wednesday night. Ronald Finley of Corvallis, Ore., won the first of an anticipated eight gold ones for the U.S. wrestling powerhouse by outpointing Mario Tovar of Mexico in the featherweight division.

Jack Barden of Port Huron, Mich., and Jim Ferguson of San Francisco followed with triumphs in the light heavyweight and middleweight classes, respectively.

The U.S. pistol team scored 2,170 points in besting Canada, second with 2,146, and Brazil, third with 2,104. Made up of Army and Marine personnel, the team consists of Capt. Franklin Green of San Antonio, Tex., who won the individual pistol shoot; Sgt. Robert Meagher, also of San Antonio, and Capt. Paul Shank of Quantico, Va.

Sgt. Gary Andersen of Axtell, Neb., won the gold medal in small bore rifle, three-position shooting. The United States won the team gold medal, with Canada finishing second and Peru third.

The team which rolled up 4,529 points to Canada's 4,351 includes Andersen, M-Sgt. Bill Krilling of Buffalo Lake, Mich., Capt. Verle Wright Jr., of Ft. Benning, Ga., and Marine Sgt. David Boyd of Belleville, N.J.

The weightlifters waltzed off with the two other gold medals U.S. athletes added to their collection. Former Olympic champion Tommy Kono of Honolulu scored in the light heavyweight division after Joseph Puleo of York, Pa., won the middleweight class.

Both the men's and women's basketball teams proved much too much for Canadian aces of the dribble-and-shoot art. The U.S. men's team clubbed Canada 80-47 while the women were just as impressive in their scrap with the Canadian girls, winning by 79-39.

Like the basketball teams, America's baseballers have not won any medals—yet. But they probably got just as much kick out of Wednesday's action as some of the teams which did win medals.

The U.S. baseball team, with right-hander Doug Mills of the University of Illinois tossing a five-hitter, clobbered Brazil 13-3. Cuba, which stunned the Yanks 13-1 in the round robin tournament's first game, was losing, meanwhile, to Mexico 5-2. The Yanks are now 3-1 and Cuba 2-1.

Carnegie Tech Names Gasparella Grid Coach

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Joe Gasparella, former Notre Dame and Pittsburgh Steelers quarterback, was named head football coach at Carnegie Tech Wednesday.

Gasparella, of Vandergrift, Pa., replaces Eddie Hirshberg who resigned at the end of last season. Like his predecessor, Gasparella will coach on a part-time basis.

Groat, Altman 2 Big Reasons Cards On Top

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Newcomers Dick Groat and George Altman provide two major reasons the St. Louis Cardinals are atop the National League.

"They put two bats in the line-up we didn't have last year," said Manager Johnny Keane, after Groat drove in two runs and Altman one as the Cardinals beat the San Francisco Giants 4-3 Wednesday.

Groat, the former Pittsburgh Pirate star, also solved the Cardinal problem at shortstop, where, Keane says, "We gave away too many games last year."

"He completed the infield, and the pitchers have a lot more confidence in the infield than they had last year. And both Groat and Altman have tagged some big hits."

Groat currently is hitting .373 and Altman, who came in a trade from the Chicago Cubs, is at .357.

The Cardinals hope to stay on top longer than they did last season. In 1962, they were in first place one day—April 28—dropped out the next, and eventually finished sixth.

In putting the current record at 0-5, St. Louis handed left-hander Billy Pierce his second straight loss in Candlestick Park, where he didn't lose at all last year.

Curt Simmons, the 33-year-old southpaw who staged a comeback after being cut loose by the Philadelphia Phillies, notched his third straight victory in going the full nine innings.

Schreckengost Tops Mark Held By Gerace

When Don Schreckengost fired 289 Monday night at the Friendly Bowling Lanes for the highest score in sanctioned bowling in East Liverpool, he erased the former mark held by Mike Gerace.

Gerace rolled 288 in 1956 and 1957 at the Don-Bus Alleys (now Friendly Lanes) and received a gold belt buckle from the American Bowling Congress.

Next highest score in sanctioned competition apparently was a 287 rolled by Ed Blazer a few years back. Al Sayre rolled a perfect 300 game in non-sanctioned competition.

Jim Burskey Hurls Shutout

New Cumberland High's baseball squad whipped Beaver Local Wednesday at the Beaver Public field behind the three-hit shutout pitching of Jim Burskey.

Burskey gained a 3-0 triumph in going the distance, allowing three singles, fanning three and walking three.

He bested Don Merritt of Beaver Local, who yielded five hits, walked one and fanned five.

Bill Tychonievich cracked two singles for Beaver Local and Gary Shaw got the other hit on a seventh-inning single.

McGowan and Manley had two hits each for New Cumberland, and each scored a run.

Michigan Choice To Win Big Ten Baseball Crown

CHICAGO (AP)—Michigan, the defending NCAA and collegiate world champion, is favored to win the Big Ten baseball title this year as the conference opens Friday.

The Wolverines, who finished second to Illinois in last year's race before going on to their NCAA and world championships, open the season at Illinois.

Other openers Friday find Indiana at Northwestern, Michigan State at Purdue, Minnesota at Iowa and Ohio State at Wisconsin. For five consecutive weekends, conference teams will play single games Friday and doubleheaders Saturday.

Michigan ranks the favorite with Minnesota and Ohio State ranked as top contenders in a poll of conference coaches.

Ohio State figures to have strong pitching, good hitting and plenty of team speed. The Buckeyes also have Walt Zabinski back. Zabinski batted .382 last season.

Reformatory Term Given

LISBON — A Salem man was sentenced when his request for probation was denied at hearings Wednesday before Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp and two from Lisbon and another from Rogers received five-year probation.

Larry Alexander, 21, of Salem R. D. was sentenced to 1-7 years in the Ohio State Reformatory for the theft of eight cases of eggs valued at $90 from the Northeastern Ohio Poultry Association while he was a truck driver.

The association claims it was short about $6,000 worth of eggs over a two-year period, but Alexander was charged with the theft of only eight cases taken in September 1962.

Ralph L. Jones, 23, and Robert E. Hutcheson, 19, both of Lisbon, received probation. Hutcheson was charged with larceny of tools from the Lisbon Steel Fabrication Co., along with Jones, who also was indicted for larceny at the R. D. Whitacre Mining Co. south of Lisbon.

Also given probation was Walter N. Thompson, 21, of Rogers R.D. 1, in connection with the burglary of the Witmer Farm Implement Sales near Washingtonville Dec. 12, 1962, in which $20 was obtained.

All were indicted by the January Grand Jury and pleaded guilty.

Palestine Firm Low On Coal Supply Bids

EAST PALESTINE — The Ferris Coal Co. of East Palestine apparently was low when bids were opened Wednesday noon by the Board of Control for coal for the Municipal Light Plant and other city buildings.

Ferris offered the fuel at $3.90 a ton delivered. The firm holds the present contract on a bid of $3.95 a ton.

The Landsberger Coal Co. bid $4.04 and John Lipp $4.23.

The city uses about 60 tons a day. The bids were taken under advisement. The present contract expires Wednesday.

Attorneys Take Sheppard's Case To District Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Dr. Sam Sheppard case bounced into U.S. District Court today as attorneys argued in briefs on whether the convicted wife slayer is entitled to a full scale hearing on his charges of violation of constitutional rights.

F. Lee Bailey of Boston and Alexander H. Martin of Columbus presented their arguments supporting their contention a recent U.S. Supreme Court decision requires a federal court to hold the hearing on a habeas corpus petition.

Sheppard's attorneys said the court must grant the hearing and must grant the writ if Sheppard's allegations are proven.

Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe, in a brief filed by his assistant, William Baird, maintained the high court decision does not deny to district courts "their long standing power to exercise sound judicial judgment; it merely elaborates certain rules which will be applied to the exercise of such discretion."

Federal Judge Mell G. Underwood directed attorneys on both sides to submit the briefs on the question of whether he may exercise discretion whether a writ of habeas corpus shall be issued.

Salineville Meeting Will Air Water Plans

SALINEVILLE — A meeting to further discuss a proposed extension of water service to the Monroe Heights area will be held Saturday night at 7 at the Village Hall.

Mayor Stanley Fitch said the residents of the area and members of the Board of Public Affairs will meet, along with Water Works Supt. Ernest Madison, Warren Bettis — member of the Ohio Public Utilities Commission and former village solicitor, and others interested in the proposal.

Councilmen have also been invited.

Residents previously have asked for a larger main to the area about a half mile outside the village to improve pressure at homes where there is now water service and to provide water for homes now using wells.

Owen Gets Estimates To Complete Building

Safety-Service Director Robert Owen said today he is obtaining contractors' estimates on completion of the interior of the new incinerator department garage and maintenance building on E. 2nd St.

Owen said the project will involve installation of sewer and water lines, erection of partitions, pouring concrete for the floor and installation of sanitary facilities for the employes — two commodes, a urinal, two lavatories and a shower.

The director visited the building this morning with a contractor who will make an estimate. Owen pointed out he will meet with the Council finance committee to request funds for the work, but must have estimates before he asks for the conference.

CLARKSON — The Clarkson Grange will hold a public round and square dance Friday from 9 to midnight to raise funds for repairs to the Grange Hall. The Tru-Tones will provide the music. The Pamona meeting will be Saturday night at 8.

Route 7 Link Planning Set

TORONTO — The State Highway Department has reached agreement with a New Philadelphia firm for preparation of construction plans for the proposed Route 7 bypass here.

The agreement was signed with W. E. Quicksall & Associates and calls for immediate preparation of construction plans for 6.04 miles of a new link in the Route 7 "super-road."

Estimated cost of the project is $8,084,000.

It will begin a mile south of Toronto, bypassing the city to the west, and ending north of the city at the junction of State Routes 7 and 152 at Empire.

The contract calls for completion of the plans within 15 months exclusive of the time needed for review by the highway department.

Officials at the Division 11 office in New Philadelphia said they assumed construction would be scheduled shortly after the plans are completed, and probably the work will be let in at least two contracts.

Preliminary line and grade work already has been started, they said.

Child Bitten By Rat; Newell Boy Injured

A Newell boy injured on a door and an East Palestine area child bitten by a rat were treated at City Hospital Wednesday.

Larry Edward Heath, 4, son of Edward Heath of Newell, suffered a possible fracture of the left little finger when his hand became caught in a door at home.

James R. Coulter, 7-month-old son of Robert Coulter of East Palestine R. D. 1, was treated for a rat bite of the left hand suffered while asleep.

Tobin Heads Clinic Group Mental Health

LISBON — Trustees of the proposed Columbiana County Mental Health Clinic elected Probate Judge Louis Tobin of East Liverpool as chairman at a luncheon meeting Wednesday noon at the Wick Hotel.

Others elected were Dr. Harold F. Hoprich, Salem physician, vice chairman; Miss Alice Herriott of East Palestine, secretary, and Charles McKenzie of Lisbon, treasurer.

Calvin Young of Cincinnati, executive secretary of the Ohio Division of the National Association for Mental Health, Inc., was present to help the trustees and officers plan for an out - patient clinic in Lisbon.

He also named Dr. Hoprich to present the clinic project to the Columbiana County Medical Society for approval.

Young said he will arrange an appointment for local officials with Dr. L. O. Dillon, commissioner of the Division of Mental Hygiene of the Ohio Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction.

Judge Tobin then appointed Mrs. J. Donald Thompson of East Liverpool, the Rev. George Sweeney of Columbiana and Miss Herriott to go with him to Columbus for the appointment.

Clinic funds of $16,000 collected in a countywide canvass last fall were turned over to McKenzie. The state promised 2-to-1 matching funds to help set up a clinic on condition the local board finds suitable housing and personnel, a qualified psychiatrist, psychologist, psychiatric - social nurse and a secretary.

Other committees appointed by Judge Tobin were:

Budget — McKenzie, Kendall and Miss Herriott; personnel — Dr. Hoprich, Sweeney and Mrs. Thompson; publicity — Mrs. Paul Hum of Lisbon and Frank Solak of Salineville, and housing — Sweeney, Kendall and Dr. Hoprich.

Brush-Moore's Head Re-Elected By ANPA

NEW YORK (AP)—G. Gordon Strong, president and general manager of Brush-Moore Newspapers, Inc., Canton, Ohio, has been re - elected vice chairman of the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association.

Thomas V. H. Vail, Cleveland Plain Dealer, was named a director on the bureau in Wednesday's election.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Who Says Woman Can't Keep Secret?

Secret dieting can add an unexpected fillip to reducing. Today's letter from a homemaker who is getting a brighter outlook on the future, sparks a challenge.

Ida Jean Kain

"I would like to say thanks to you by sharing with your other readers a plan by which I have managed to lose some excess poundage.

"At the holidays, when I attended a meeting of the ladies of our church, I was so envious of one of the women there I could hardly stand it. This lady had lost 30 pounds over a period of five months and she really looked neat in a sheath skirt.

"I felt so dumpy and fat by comparison that I couldn't get my mind on the meeting. Then and there I made up my mind to go on a diet and lose weight. Since we had the holidays to go through, I decided that the first of the year would be an ideal time to start.

"I WENT TO see my family doctor on December 28th, and asked for a diet sheet and instruction. On January 2nd I started on my 1,000 calorie diet.

"I planned my slimming meals in advance. I count every calorie and write it down. Keeping score on the calories is a tremendous help.

"But what has helped me most of all has been my not telling anyone that I am dieting. I did not tell my husband! Always before I would tell him and he would go from one extreme to another.

"He would either tempt me with rich foods or watch every bite I would take and if I ate any little thing that I shouldn't he would say, 'Paying good money to the doctor to lose weight and there you are eating.' Needless to say, my reaction would be 'Oh what's the use!' and back I would go to my old eating habits.

"Well, this time I didn't say a word to him. I know that he knows it, but he's too stubborn to mention it and I'll not tell him. When I married him eleven years ago I weighed 124 pounds. At the time I started this diet I weighed 222 pounds . . . a gain of 98 pounds.

"So far I have lost 32 pounds, and have 50 more to go. I am 5 feet 7 with a medium frame. If I can get to 140 pounds I'll be right weight and happy. I also take daily exercises which help to tone me up as I slim down.

"I hope this letter will help other women who need to lose weight to get started on the right track. Thank you again for your wonderful column."

FRIENDS, WOULDN'T you like to shake the hand of this spirited gal? I surely would! I admire her courage . . . I glory in her spunk. See it through she will, and to a triumphant conclusion.

Please keep us posted! Won't you report again . . . on the 4th of July?

Send a stamped, self-addressed long envelope for "Revised Calorie Chart." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of The Review. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Prince Rainier, Princess Relax

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Prince Rainier III of Monaco and Princess Grace relax with their children and the princess' family today. It was the first time since their arrival last week that they didn't have a planned function to attend.

There are reports the prince will attend the Kentucky Derby May 4 and that the family will visit the summer home of the princess' mother, Mrs. John B. Kelly Sr., in New Jersey. The princess hasn't said anything about her family's plans.

The princess, former movie actress Grace Kelly, attended the last scheduled reception Wednesday—a combination fashion show and a reunion with teachers and 19 of her classmates at the Stevens School, a girls' finishing school.

FBI Joins In Hunt For Dayton Robber

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — FBI agents, Dayton police, and Montgomery County sheriff's deputies searched today for a gun-wielding robber who held up the Citizens Savings and Loan Co. office in Dayton's East Town shopping center.

The amount taken in the holdup Wednesday was unofficially estimated at $6,500.

Sunken Spots In Route 30 Due Attention

State highway officials today said they are seeking a solution to correcting two sunken places in the paving on Route 30 between the city limits and the Pearl China Co.

Two large sections of the highway, one about 20 feet long and the other about 30 feet, dropped when the dirt beneath slid toward the creek in California Hollow. Both are on the right hand side approaching East Liverpool.

The problem has been placed in the hands of the location and design department of Division 11 of the State Highway Department at New Philadelphia.

Meanwhile, Chester Whitehouse, Columbiana County superintendent for the state highway department, said his crews are working to maintain two-way traffic until a solution is found for permanent repairs.

The condition was caused by construction of the new highway in California Hollow and when the channel of the creek was changed. The water hit against the side next to Route 30 and caused the dirt to soften. It then slid from beneath the highway.

The condition is not improving, he said. It started about six weeks ago.

Dairy Princess Contest Planned

LISBON — Entries are now being received for the Ohio Dairy Princess contest, sponsored by the state unit of the American Dairy Association. The rules require that the parents derive at least a part of their income from dairy farming, according to Don Myers, county extension agent in agriculture.

The Columbiana County Dairymen's Council is sponsoring the local contest and entrants must be at least 16 by Oct. 1, and not be over 25 as of that date. They must never have been married and must be a high school student or will graduate in June.

The local winner will represent the county at the state contest at Columbus in June. The state dairy princess makes public appearances throughout the year at various events in behalf of the dairy industry, Myers said.

VFW Will Sell Flags For Veterans Graves

Pvt. Eddy VFW Post said today it will continue this year with a program for placing flags for Memorial Day on veterans' graves at Columbiana County Memorial Park.

Anyone desiring to buy a flag for the grave of a veteran buried at the park may contact Harry L. Simpson at FU. 5-0062 or FU. 6-6963. The flags are weatherproof 3-x-5 feet, mounted on 10 - foot poles. To be flown on various holidays, the flags will be stored at the park. Further information may be obtained from Simpson. The deadline for the orders will be May 15 to allow time for the flags to arrive and bases to be provided in the ground.

The flags are placed around the fountain at present and it is hoped to line the entire road, Simpson said.

Ohioan, 102, Takes His Sixth Bride, 82

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Charles A. Wilson has taken a wife for the sixth time, proclaiming that "no man should live alone."

Wilson is 102, and his bride, the former Fannie E. Russell, is 82. They were married in Franklin County Probate Court Wednesday.

Wilson, who said he was born near Spartanburg, N. C., July 15, 1860, became the father of 13 children in his five previous marriages. Mrs. Wilson, a widow for 15 years, had 18 children of her own and adopted two others.

Music Fete Planned At Crestview School

MIDDLETON — A spring music festival will be presented by the music department of Fairfield-Waterford schools Tuesday night at 8 at the Crestview High School.

The junior high school band and senior high school band will perform, along with the Crestview Chorus and ensembles.

A feature will be a combined senior band and chorus selection, and a combined junior and senior band number. Mrs. Ellen Wilhelm is choral director, and Joe Danko band director.

License Plate Funds Net County $552,143

Columbiana County's share of the first advanced distribution of 1963 license plate funds amounts to $552,143, according to a report from Ohio Registrar Dave Mainwaring.

The distribution is scheduled before the end of the month, Mainwaring said. The statewide distribution totals $46 million, of which $32.9 million will go to counties and $13 million to municipalities.

Later an additional $7.5 million will be distributed to counties and townships, he said.

18 Clubs Represented

Federation Board Gives Scholarship Group $300

A contribution of $300 to the Citizens Scholarship Foundation was voted at the meeting of the Executive Board of the East Liverpool Federation of Women's Clubs Wednesday night in the Potters Savings & Loan Co. annex.

Mrs. Nessie R. Dunlop, president, presided. Mrs. Richard Emmerling, secretary, read the minutes and conducted roll call which showed 18 of the 22 affiliated clubs represented. Miss Della Engles gave the financial report.

Mrs. Paul Davis, project chairman, reported on the children's play, "Maggie's Magic Teapot," to be presented May 4 at Westgate School. About 900 letters with tickets have been mailed. Proceeds will go for scholarships to the YMCA Camp at Pine Ridge.

Mrs. Theodore Burke, chairman of the special camp project, said letters will be mailed to school principals and civic groups to submit names of worthy boys and girls. Midget camp is for boys in the 8-9-year bracket and boys camp for those 10 through 14. Girls between 10-14 will be sent to their camp periods. The camp opens July 1.

Mrs. Robert Jones, clothing chairman, mentioned that all referred cases have been supplied; however, all kinds of children's clothing can be used and she may be called for pickup.

Miss Helen Bibbee, program chairman, reported on the spring style show, announcing that member participation attracts unusually large attendance. Since there was no expense connected with the past two programs, the group voted the remuneration of $150 be turned in to the town improvement fund.

Mrs. Dunlop gave the town improvement report in the absence of the chairman, Mrs. Faye Wright. The household articles sale is set tentatively for June 15 and each club will name a representative to the committee to collect the goods.

Upon recommendation of Mrs. W. A. Betz, chairman, the group voted to provide birthday cakes for the Senior Citizens for another year. Mrs. Betz assumed chairmanship for another term.

Mrs. Lawrence Sixt, social chairman, and Mrs. Donald E. Wolfe, decorations chairman, received commendation for their work.

Dies In Auto Crash

PICKERINGTON, Ohio (AP) — Robert C. Murray, 65, a retired Columbus policeman, died early today in the crash of his car into a tree.

Sheriff's deputies said he may have suffered a heart attack.

Industry Women To Attend Event

The final meeting of the season, a Presidents' Dinner, will be held at the New Willows Motel in Industry by the Industry Women's Club May 28.

Reservations are being taken by Mrs. William Chapman. Members may bring guests. Mrs. Eleanor Wagoner is hostess chairman.

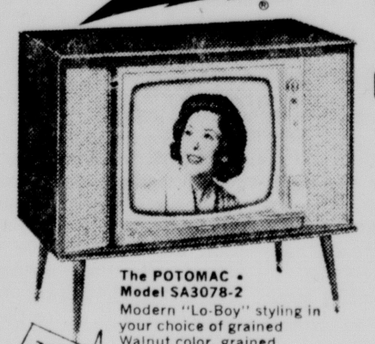

Mrs. Paul Murray, Beaver County Federation of Women's Clubs president, will be guest speaker.

Mrs. Lysle Bradshaw, president, announced the reciprocity meeting of the Monaca club will be held May 20 at 7:45 p. m. in the Union Hall in Monaca. Mrs. H. E. Sanford, Pennsylvania Federation president, will be guest speaker. Members desiring to attend should contact Mrs. William Ralph by May 15.

Mrs. Leroy Dunn, Mrs. Bradshaw and Mrs. Jack M. Peck attended the spring meeting of the Beaver County Federation today at the Grace Lutheran Church in Rochester.

Jazz To Mix With Oompah For Concert

The modern sound of progressive jazz will be contrasted with the "oompah" of a German band briefly at tonight's "Dollars for Scholars" concert at the Westgate School auditorium.

Along with the orchestras of Bob Hall, Scotty Young, George Hamilton and Benny and the Keynotes and the 20-piece East Liverpool High School dance band, the "Potters Five," a German band unit, will also play.

Four girls and a boy dance—"The Ronnie Boston Sweethearts"—from the Ronnie Boston School will also serve with the variety acts which will include Nila Jo Bailey of Newell, Larry Myers, Vicki Myers and Ronnie Myers in a dance act and "The Colonials," noted barbershop quartet which includes Bill Brooks, Charles Brooks, Dale Keddie and James Raffle.

Anyone with a membership card in the Citizens Scholarship Foundation may attend the concert. Memberships will be sold at the door.

The Boston dancers include Wilbur Price, Joy Pipes, Eileen Painter, Sarah Muslovsky and Carolyn Bell.

Bill Brooks and Keddie will be master of ceremonies for the show. Keith Langdon, high school faculty member, and Tom Futhey are in charge of stage and lighting arrangements.

Terri Rini, Salem organist and singer, will be featured, along with Tommy Miller, vocalist with Young.

Fair Parking Free, But Gate Price Raised

LISBON — The Columbiana County Agriculture Society Wednesday evening agreed to allow free parking within the fairgrounds for the 118th fair Aug. 22-26, but it raised price of admissions for adults to 75 cents. Previously the board charged 50 cents for cars and 50 cents admission. Children's admission of 25 cents was unchanged.

In other business, the fair board decided to add an industrial tent this year in which Columbiana County manufacturers will be asked to display their products. Tent space may be obtained from any fair board member or the firms may contact Mrs. Velma Cope, secretary.

Colt stakes for fair harness races closed April 15 and Richard Stockman, speed secretary, reported 61 entries.

The board agreed to advertise in a booklet being prepared by the Columbiana County Historical Association for re-enactment of Morgan's Raid in July.

Further plans were discussed for publication of the premium book and members are now obtaining advertisements. Anyone desiring to advertise should contact a board member at once.

The Columbiana County 4-H Saddle Club was given permission to use the coliseum for a meeting June 13.

The board will hold a special meeting also in the county extension office May 8 at 8 p. m.

Junior Editors Quiz on SENSE OF SMELL

QUESTION: How does our sense of smell work?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Smell is an extremely important sense to animals, because it is through this that they get most of their information about distant things. We humans rely more on our sight and our intelligence to give us an idea of the world around us. Yet we do use smell. Certainly smell is giving Richard, in our picture, a definite report on a distant object! What is happening is that vapor or gas is rising of the turkey, carrying many minute molecules. These enter Richard's nostrils (A) and are carried into his nasal cavity. Here they mix with a liquid in the lining of the nose. The chemicals in the liquid then stimulate nerve cells which lead toward a smell center composed of certain lobes of the brain (B). From this center, information about the smell is sent to the main control or direction center of the brain (C). In Richard's case, the control center is getting a very favorable report about the smell; it suggests something very good to eat. So it will send orders through Richard's body, telling him to sit down at the table and get ready to eat. In the case of something which has turned out bad, our smell wisely tells us not to touch it.

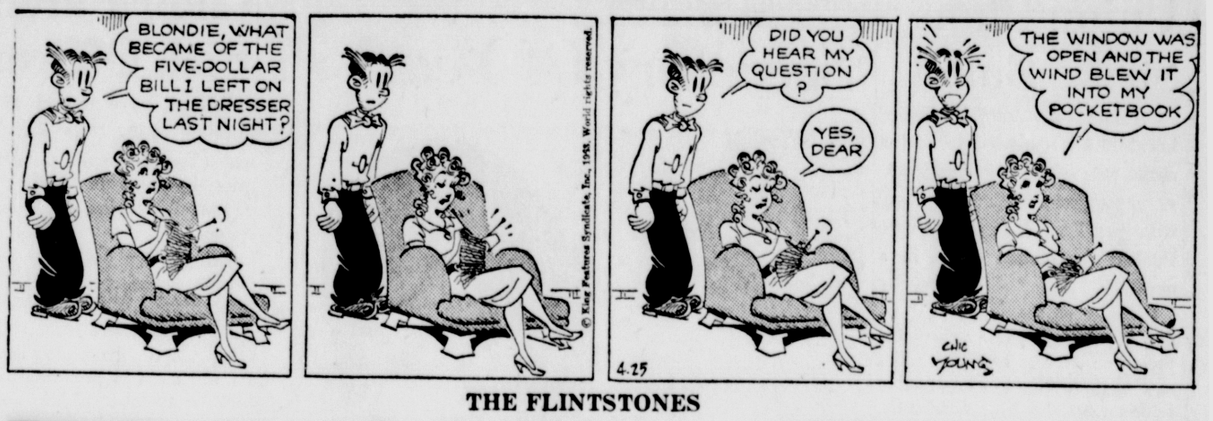

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Blindfold a friend who's willing to try an experiment and then hold his nose so he can't smell. Give him bits of onion and apple to taste. He'll probtbly have difficulty deciding which is which. This shows smell and taste are closely related.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

A Strange Faculty

As two small tow-headed boys frolicked through the hotel suite like otters in a pond, their new stepfather, Rick Jason, thumped a few tubs in behalf of the ABC-TV series in which he co-stars, "Combat," and spoke of his estimable clairvoyant powers.

Alan Gill

"I've got this strange faculty," he said in a voice that's the spittin' aural image of Robert Taylor's, "and it's sometimes painful. The first day on a job, I get that deep-down feeling that it's going to go or it's not.

-:-

"I GOT IT in the first Broadway rehearsals of 'Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep' a dozen years ago. I got it very strong when I played the lead in 'The Wayward Bus,' but I refused to face it. With 'Combat,' though, I grabbed the horse's tail and for the first time I grabbed a real winner. After 15 years!

"On the first day of shooting the pilot for the series out in Zuma Beach, I said to Selig Seligman, the producer, and Robert Pirosch, the writer, 'We've got a winner. This show is sold.'

"And Pirosch, who's a bundle of nerves, got all upset. 'That's a very arrogant statement,' he said. And he followed me down the beach. 'That's a darned arrogant statement.!'

"He got madder and madder. But a few mornings later, at the first screening — the first! — the show was sold.

"I WAS TALKING to a fine actor, Eduard Franz, about it one day, and I told him, 'I went 15 years without hitting it.' And Franz said, 'Look at me. I've been waiting 50.' "

Jason stands 6 feet and doesn't just sound like Robert Taylor, he looks like him. The features are outlined neatly in black, the eyes are metallic, like tin foil, and the jaws are blue.

Does he have to shave three times a day?

"That's the nice thing about 'Combat,' " he said. "I don't think I've shaved more than 30 times since last June."

There is nothing unique about Jason's Hollywood routine — up at 5:30, at the studio by 7, on the go under a broiling sun all day, and then public relations or "official functions" every evening but "we're five minutes from the beach and 30 seconds from the pool" and the man has stamina.

"WE'RE DOING things now we thought were impossible a year ago. I'm using muscles I never used before."

Acting in a TV series, Jason said, is "a young man's business. Sure. But look at Sam Jaffe, he's held up under it and Jaffe must be 250 years old now. I think he was 230 in 'Lost Horizons' and that was about 20 years ago."

Returning to "Combat," he said he had no objections to its early air time.

"It's family entertainment, if you can call World War II family entertainment. It steadily avoids the so-easy cliche and preachment of most war movies. We try to give it a semi-documentary appearance and seldom use well-known guests.

"The sets themselves are awfully real. We've got three French towns on Back Lot 3 and another two on Back Lot 2, and we've got a quay. And the carpenters are always tearing the towns apart and putting them back together again.

"WE HEAR OFTEN from veterans who tell us, 'Yeah, it was just like that!' And it was. A few of them tell us we're all wrong; but the truth is, many veterans remember the good things now and forget what the war was really like."

At this point, Jason had to interrupt his discourse to threaten his two blond otters with an immediate return to California via the U.S. mails. The otters' mother and Jason's bride thereupon entered the room to join the free-for-all.

A stunning, German-born fraulein, her name is Silky, she is a former New York model, and she thinks rather highly of her husband.

"Let's face it," she said in a nice husky accent, "you're a man's man, and a woman's man."

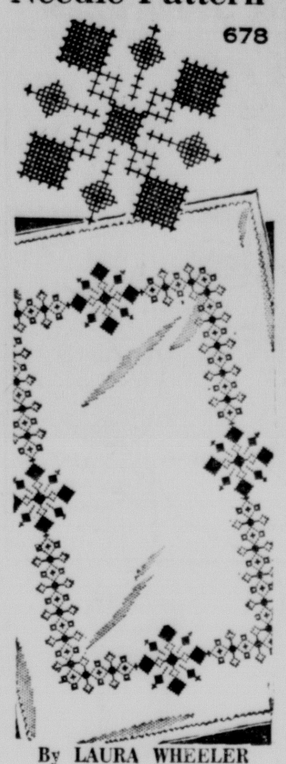

She turned to the visitor.

"I'm so proud of him. He hunts, he fishes — a Clark Gable fellow, you know? For Christmas he gave me a black negligee and a 12-gauge shotgun. And look at him, he's a good dresser!"

Jason's mother, a warmly brisk citizen of New York City who had dropped in to meet her grandchildren, smiled and said, "Of course he's a good dresser. I started him off that way."

The otters thereupon locked themselves into a nearby cabinet and began hammering on the door.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Child Confused By Open Disagreement

I had been talking with a group of fourth grade children and answering their questions about getting along with their brothers and sisters. As the children were leaving the room, one girl stopped to say to me, "Please tell me what to do when my mother tells me to do something and my father then tells me not to do it. I love them both and want to obey them but I don't know how." I was so stumped with the question that I hardly knew how to answer her. Finally I said, "At some quiet time when your father and mother are together and seem to be feeling comfortable, tell them tenderly what you have told me. Ask them if they would not try to work out together ways of being alike in managing you."

Dr. Garry Meyers

IT'S HARD ENOUGH for a child to obey one parent when this parent is inconsistent from time to time, as we pointed out yesterday. But how nearly impossible for the youngster to obey when his parents often disagree with each other about what he should do or not do, right in his presence. How frustrated and confused he must be.

It may be almost equally difficult for the child when what one parent, while alone with him, allows or tells him to do differs from what the other parent, minutes, hours or days later, permits or commands him to do.

When such often occurs, the youngster, say from four to ten, figures out which parent is more likely to let him have his way. If he is denied a request or privilege or given a command by the stricter parent, he may later go to the other parent and get "better terms".

The second parent may not know the other parent has made a different decision.

MRS. MYERS and I discovered this to have occurred with our children when they were young. Seeing how serious the matter was, we agreed to check often by saying, "Did you ask your mother (or your father) about this?"

When either of us learned that the other parent had expressed a decision we tried habitually to reply, "Whatever she (or he) said is right." We aimed to do so even when either parent doubted the wisdom of the other's judgment. We tried to prove to the children that we were as one in relation to them.

To this end we often talked together in private on matters concerning guidance of the children while they were growing up. We did not always agree then and we had some arguments in those private conferences. Yet we did try hard to reach an accord by which we would each stand.

SOMETIMES WE departed a bit from our mutural resolve, yet we did keep striving in this direction, knowing that the plan was desirable and workable.

Let me entreat young parents early in the life of their child, even before he is born, often to talk over privately the ways and principles by which they will guide this chlid; also, as he grows older, to confer in private from time to time on such matters.

I'm sure all parents will agree with me that they should strive without ceasing to be as one in relation to the upbringing of their children.

My bulletin, "A Parent's Prayer", may be secured by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Civil Defense Group To Show Survival Kit

Plans to display survival kits at Lee's Market on the Y. & O. Rd. Saturday were made at the meeting of the St. Clair Township Civil Defense Tuesday night at the fire hall in Glenmoor.

A member will be present to explain the kits and distribute literature.

Herman Heiney conducted the adult self-help class and Al Rutecki, county CD Director, showed a selection of survival kits and gave a demonstration on artificial respiration.

Farmers In Hancock Given Wheat Deadline

The deadline is May 13 for Hancock County wheat farmers to register at the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee office at New Cumberland to vote on the 1964 wheat crop allotments.

Mrs. Norma Murray, ASC office manager, said the wheat allotment forms have been mailed the growers. The referendum will be May 21. This will decide whether to use marketing quotas for the 1964 crop.

She said there are 84 Hancock farms with a history of wheat production.

Balk Touches Off Reds-Dodgers Dispute

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Owens Ejected

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The four-letter word, BALK, touched off the biggest on-the-field dispute of the season over the new game of balkball as played in Warren Giles' National League, overshadowing a fine three-hitter pitched by Johnny Podres in the Los Angeles Dodgers' 7-0 victory over Cincinnati Wednesday night.

The balks calls that have continually disrupted games under the new strict enforcement of the rule requiring a pitcher to stop for a full second before delivering interrupted play for about one-half hour during the second inning of the Dodgers-Reds game.

The explosion came after plate umpire Shag Crawford called two balks on Reds' starter Jim Owens, enabling Johnny Roseboro to move from first to third base. He scored on a single by Willie Davis.

Then, pitching to Podres, Owens twice paused unusually long before throwing to the plate. Crawford singled a warning. Owens stretched and fired. Crawford yelled balk, Owens yelled something else, and towels and players team has called 32 of the 67 balks enforced in the NL, then sent the entire Reds team, with the exception of relief pitcher John Tsitouris and catcher Johnny Edwards, to the dressing room. Fred Hutchinson talked and talked, and Tsitouris warmed up endlessly.

When Hutch had finished his dissertation on balks the Reds' players were requested back on made their way out of the Cincinnati dugout in equal numbers. At the same time, Owens was ejected for injecting his comments.

Augie Donatelli, whose umpiring the field and the game resumed.

Podres needed little aide, but got it from the balks—one on Tsitouris in the seventh inning sent Nate Oliver home from third—and home runs by Johnny Roseboro, Ron Fairly and Frank Howard. Podres also was charged with one balk.

St. Louis edged San Francisco 4-3 and moved into sole possession of first place.

Pittsburgh defeated Philadelphia 6-4, Milwaukee edged Houston 4-3 and the New York Mets shut out the Chicago Cubs 2-0.

The Cardinals, shutout on one hit by Billy Pierce for five innings, erupted for four runs in the sixth. Curt Simmons went the distance, spacing nine hits, for his third victory without a loss.

Rookie third baseman Bob Bailey hit a three-run homer in the fourth inning and Roberto Clemente drove in the winning runs with a seventh inning double for the Pirates. The Phillies had tied the score in the fifth on Wes Covington's two-run homer off Bob Friend, now 3-0. Chris Short was the loser.

Home runs by Eddie Mathews and Mack Jones gave Warren Spahn the support he needed to go all the way against the Colts for the 330th triumph of his career. Dick Farrell took the loss.

Carl Willey, acquired from the Braves, held the Cubs to three hits for his first victory as the Mets posted their fifth victory in six games. The loser was Bob Buhl.

Pena, Refugee Of National League, Hurls Athletics Into First Place

White Sox Nip Yanks, Hold 2nd

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Orlando Pena, a refugee from the other world of the National League, and the little green men have taken over.

Pena, a skinny, 155-pounder who once worked for the Cincinnati Reds, blanked Baltimore 5-0 as he and his Kansas City teammates barged into first place in the American League Wednesday night with a half-game lead over Chicago and Baltimore.

The White Sox retained second place, just 7 points back of the A's on the strength of a 6-4, 12-inning triumph over the Yankees in New York. Al Kaline's 15th inning homer was the difference in the Tigers' 4-3 edge over the Los Angeles Angels at Detroit. Minnesota's Camilo Pascual won his first of the year in the Twins' 6-4 victor at Washington, and the Indians beat Boston 2-0 at Cleveland.

Pena, a slim right-hander, had to work his way out of three late-inning jams to preserve the shutout, and didn't have the victory nailed down until the A's broke loose for four runs in the ninth. Pena was rapped for 10 hits, but the Orioles left 10 runners stranded and had two others thrown out at the plate in the sixth inning.

Wayne Causey singled in the winning run in the seventh against loser Mike McCormick. Ed Charles' two-run single highlighted the ninth inning burst against Stu Miller.

Mike Hershberger singled in two White Sox runs in the 12th at New York. Hoyt Wilhelm picked up the victory, allowing only one hit in 3 1-3 innings of relief, but allowed the Yanks to tie it in the ninth when one of his deliveries got away from the catcher. The Yankees' sixth pitcher, Luis Arroyo, was the loser.

Kaline tied it for the Tigers when he doubled in two seventh inning runs, then won it with his wrong field drive in the 15th.

Pascual, a 20-game winner with the Twins last season, struck out 12 enroute to his first 1963 victory. The Twins staked him to a early 5-0 lead, but he had to stand off a Senator rally in the fifth.

Gary Bell, making his first start since last July, and Jim Mudcat Grant combined on a four-hit shutout of Boston. Bell struck out 10 before he tired in the ninth and walked two. Grant was summoned to wind things up. Woodie Held provided the Indians all the hitting they needed with a two-run homer in the fifth off loser Earl Wilson.

Quarter-Finals Slated Today In North-South Golf

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—The North and South Amateur Golf Tournament is 63 years old but rarely has it produced the fierce competition evidenced here this week.

Quarter-finals today paired Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, the defending champion, against Cobby Ware of Augusta, Ga., and Ray Terry of Jacksonville, Fla., against Jake Howard, also of Augusta, in the upper bracket.

In the lower half, Sam Marsh of Greenville, S.C., faced Bob Allen of West Hartford, Conn., and John Guenther of Reading, Pa., drew Dave Smith of Gastonia.

They were the eight survivors of 128 who started three days ago.

Patton, who turned 41 last week, is the oldest of the survivors. Allen, who won the New England amateur title five years ago and won a Rhode Island open crown and five Rody amateurs before moving to Connecticut, is next oldest at 38. Smith follows at 36, with Guenther and Terry each 30. The others are in the mid-20s.

GETS THE THUMB. Cincinnati pitcher Jim Owens is ejected from the game after violent objections to the umpire calling three balks on him in one inning. Umpire "Shag" Crawford, shown ejecting Owens (right), called six balks in the game. The game with the Dodgers at Los Angeles was delayed 21 minutes and the entire Cincinnati bench was cleared during the rhubarb. The Dodgers won, 7-0. (UPI Telephoto)

Maris Hurt Again, Mantle Due Return To Yank Lineup

NEW YORK (AP)—Roger Maris is out again. Mickey Mantle's in again and lefty Bud Daley has joined the New York Yankees' long, long list of hospital cases.

Daley, a Yank relief pitcher, is scheduled for surgery Friday for removal of bone chips in his pitching elbow. He will be out for about two months.

Maris, who made his first appearance of the season last Friday, reinjured a hamstring muscle in his right leg while running out a ground single Wednesday against Chicago. He was replaced immediately.

The Yankees said Maris will rest the leg today and Friday—days off for the World Champions—and a decision on his availability won't be made until late Friday.

Mantle, out since April 13 with rib cage injuries, has been pronounced fit for duty and is expected to start Saturday's game against Cleveland.

The Yankees, plagued with a long string of illness and injuries this season, have not yet been able to field their regular starting line-up

Celts Win Fifth NBA Title In Row

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Boston Celtics, combining a resolution to win with the wisdom of "old age," proved Wednesday night that they still dominate the National Basketball Association.

They gained their fifth consecutive NBA title by taking the playoff series with the Los Angeles Lakers, 4 games to 2. They beat the Lakers 112-109 in the sixth game, mainly on a very hot second period in which they outscored Los Angeles 33-17.

The Lakers began narrowing the gap in the second half, got as close as one point, and then Tom Heinsohn stole a pass from Jerry West to Rudy LaRusso, dribbled the length of the court, and sank a layup.

It was the big play of the game, agreed both coaches, Red Auerbach of Boston and Fred Schaus of Los Angeles. It boosted Boston's lead to 106-102, and while the Lakers battled back, Heinsohn killed their hopes by sinking four free throws as Los Angeles fouled trying to get the ball.

"This was a very satisfying win," Auerbach said as he hurried his squad into their clothes for a late plane connection to Boston. "So many people were saying we were a bunch of old men. But with Bill Russell around . . . well, he's simply great, that's all."

Potter Golfers Post Triumph

With Bob Gilmore firing a two-under par 38, East Liverpool High's golf team defeated United Local, 9-4, Wednesday at Twin Springs Country Club near Guilford Lake.

The victory was the second in a row for the Potters.

For United, Randy Starky had 48, Wayne Loschinsky, 47, and the final player 56.

City West Pointer Plays On Ball Team

He is a pitcher on the team. A member of the Class of 1965, Johnstone is a 1958 graduate of East Liverpool High School.

U.S. Stars Poised For More Glory

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP) — America's array of stars was poised today for more Pan-American Games glory after plucking 19 gold medals during the first five days of this fourth neighbor vs. neighbor athletic carnival.

A big splurge for gold medals is expected tonight from U.S. swimmers, who already own five of Uncle Sam's firsts in the Games which end May 5.

The swimming aces are odds-on favorites to harvest four more gold medals in the finals of the men's 200-meter butterfly and the women's 200 breaststroke, 100 freestyle and 400 freestyle.

If they are successful, U.S. athletes will have bagged at least 13 gold medals in two days, a gesture which would pretty well confirm what everyone is already thinking—that America is going to outclass completely all other countries in this year's Pan-American Games.

No other country had more than one gold medal after Wednesday's action.

The Americans put on dazzling displays Wednesday, a day good for nine gold medals, in women's springboard diving, wrestling, rifle and pistol shooting, weightlifting, baseball and men's and women's basketball.

A couple of U.S. tennis stars, Darlene Hard of Long Beach, Calif., Carole Caldwell of Santa Monica, Calif., provided the day's disappointment. Both lost in the women's singles semifinals.

Yolanda Ramirez of Mexico eliminated Miss Hard 2-6, 6-3, 6-4, and Maria Bueno of Brazil defeated Miss Caldwell 6-4, 6-1.

Barbara Ellen McAlister of Phoenix, a nifty 21-year-old brunette secretary, touched off the gold medal parade Wednesday by winning the 3-meter springboard diving championship for the Yankees, who in addition to gold medals have 10 silver and nine bronze medals.

The wrestlers grabbed three gold medals Wednesday night. Ronald Finley of Corvallis, Ore., won the first of an anticipated eight gold ones for the U.S. wrestling powerhouse by outpointing Mario Tovar of Mexico in the featherweight division.

The U.S. pistol team scored 2.170 points in besting Canada, second with 2.146, and Brazil, third with 2.104. Made up of Army and Marine personnel, the team consists of Capt. Franklin Green of San Antonio, Tex., who won the individual pistol shoot; Sgt. Robert Meagher, also of San Antonio, and Capt. Paul Shank of Quantico, Va.

Sgt. Gary Andersen of Axtell, Neb., won the gold medal in small bore rifle, three-position shooting. The United States won the team gold medal, with Canada finishing second and Peru third.

The team which rolled up 4,529 points to Canada's 4,351 includes Andersen, M-Sgt. Bill Krilling of Buffalo Lake, Mich., Capt. Verle Wright Jr., of Ft. Benning, Ga., and Marine Sgt. David Boyd of Belleville, N.J.

The weightlifters waltzed off with the two other gold medals U.S. athletes added to their collection. Former Olympic champion Tommy Kono of Honolulu scored in the light heavyweight division after Joseph Puleo of York, Pa., won the middleweight class.

Both the men's and women's basketball teams proved much too much for Canadian aces of the dribble-and-shoot art. The U.S. men's team clubbed Canada 80-47 while the women were just as impressive in their scrap with the Canadian girls, winning by 79-39.

Like the basketball teams, America's baseballers have not won any medals—yet. But they probably got just as much kick out of Wednesday's action as some of the teams which did win medals.

The U.S. baseball team, with right-hander Doug Mills of the University of Illinois tossing a five-hitter, clobbered Brazil 13-3. Cuba, which stunned the Yanks 13-1 in the round robin tournament's first game, was losing, meanwhile, to Mexico 5-2. The Yanks are now 3-1 and Cuba 2-1.

Groat, Altman 2 Big Reasons Cards On Top

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Newcomers Dick Groat and George Altman provide two major reasons the St. Louis Cardinals are atop the National League.

"They put two bats in the line-up we didn't have last year," said Manager Johnny Keane, after Groat drove in two runs and Altman one as the Cardinals beat the San Francisco Giants 4-3 Wednesday.

Groat, the former Pittsburgh Pirate star, also solved the Cardinal problem at shortstop, where, Keane says, "We gave away too many games last year."

"He completed the infield, and the pitchers have a lot more confidence in the infield than they had last year. And both Groat and Altman have tagged some big hits."

Groat currently is hitting .373 and Altman, who came in a trade from the Chicago Cubs, is at .357.

The Cardinals hope to stay on top longer than they did last season. In 1962, they were in first place one day—April 28—dropped out the next, and eventually finished sixth.

In putting the current record at 0-5, St. Louis handed left-hander Billy Pierce his second straight loss in Candlestick Park, where he didn't lose at all last year.

Curt Simmons, the 33-year-old southpaw who staged a comeback after being cut loose by the Philadelphia Phillies, notched his third straight victory in going the full nine innings.

Schreckengost Tops Mark Held By Gerace

When Don Schreckengost fired 289 Monday night at the Friendly Bowling Lanes for the highest score in sanctioned bowling in East Liverpool, he erased the former mark held by Mike Gerace.

Gerace rolled 288 in 1956 and 1957 at the Don-Bus Alleys (now Friendly Lanes) and received a gold belt buckle from the American Bowling Congress.

Next highest score in sanctioned competition apparently was a 287 rolled by Ed Blazer a few years back. Al Sayre rolled a perfect 300 game in non-sanctioned competition.

Jim Burskey Hurls Shutout

New Cumberland High's baseball squad whipped Beaver Local Wednesday at the Beaver Public field behind the three-hit shutout pitching of Jim Burskey.

Burskey gained a 3-0 triumph in going the distance, allowing three singles, fanning three and walking three.

He bested Don Merritt of Beaver Local, who yielded five hits, walked one and fanned five.

Bill Tychonievich cracked two singles for Beaver Local and Gary Shaw got the other hit on a seventh-inning single.

McGowan and Manley had two hits each for New Cumberland, and each scored a run.

Michigan Choice To Win Big Ten Baseball Crown

CHICAGO (AP)—Michigan, the defending NCAA and collegiate world champion, is favored to win the Big Ten baseball title this year as the conference opens Friday.

The Wolverines, who finished second to Illinois in last year's race before going on to their NCAA and world championships, open the season at Illinois.

Other openers Friday find Indiana at Northwestern, Michigan State at Purdue, Minnesota at Iowa and Ohio State at Wisconsin. For five consecutive weekends, conference teams will play single games Friday and doubleheaders Saturday.

Michigan ranks the favorite with Minnesota and Ohio State ranked as top contenders in a poll of conference coaches.

Ohio State figures to have strong pitching, good hitting and plenty of team speed. The Buckeyes also have Walt Zabinski back. Zabinski batted .382 last season.

Palmer Picked To Win In Texas Open Event

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Already conceded the Texas Open championship without firing a shot, Arnold Palmer started out today to make the forecasters look good.

No player ever was under more pressure or on a hotter spot than golf's great man. The tournament has been dedicated to him, officials have already predicted he'll win it the fourth time in a row and now all Palmer has to worry about is a couple of score of links hotshots who could beat his ears off.

But Palmer indicated in a pro-amateur round Wednesday that they have their work cut out for them. He shot a 6-under-par 65 and tied Johnny Pott, the young man from Gulf Hills, Miss., for low pro score.

Palmer found the 6,775-yard Oak Hills Country Club course pretty much of a patsy but 20 other pros were under 70 and had the same condescending air.

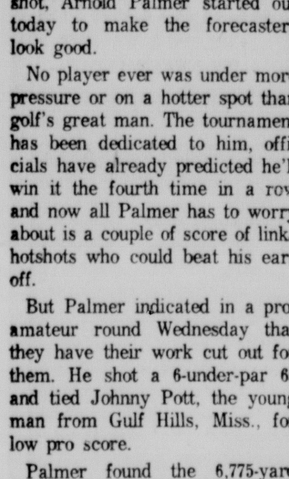

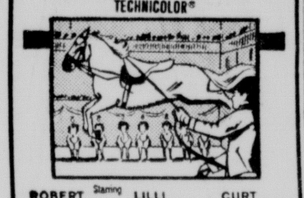

The field is a strong one although it lacks Gary Player and Jack Nicklaus. Seven of the 12 leading money-winners are here and eight players who have won tournaments on the tour are competing for the $4,300 first money.

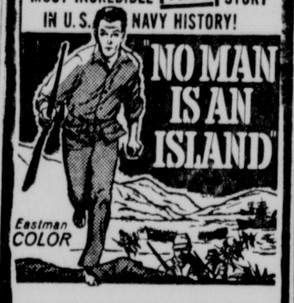

Bob Charles, the lefthander from New Zealand who won the tough Houston tournament, is considered one of Palmer's strongest threats. Doug Sanders, Don January, Jack Burke and Dan Sikes are others.

There were 161 in the field that moved out today in the opening 18 holes of the $30,000 tournament.

No Isolation Here

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—All land areas of the world will be within range of missile-firing nuclear submarines when the 2,875-mile A3 model of the Polaris rocket is perfected, hopefully in 1964. The operational Polaris A2, with reach of 1,725 miles, provides 95 per cent coverage.

Sonny-Floyd Bout Definitely Slated June 27 At Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The world heavyweight return title bout between champion Sonny Liston and Floyd Patterson has been definitely set for June 27 in the Las Vegas Convention Center which seats 8,400.

Al Bolan, vice president of Championship Sports, Inc., which is promoting the rematch, made the announcement Wednesday. He said each fighter will get 30 per cent of the gate receipts and 30 per cent of the proceeds from nationwide closed circuit theater television. Seats have been scaled up to $100 for ringside.

The rematch originally was set for Miami Beach, Fla., April 4, but Liston twisted his knee executing a golf shot and a postponement was necessitated.

Liston is doing his training now at Lowry Air Force Base, Denver, and Patterson is at Highland Mills, N.Y. They are expected to come to Las Vegas about a month before the fight and finish their training.

This will be the fourth heavyweight title bout staged in Nevada, but the first in Las Vegas.

Liston won the title from Patterson at Chicago last Sept. 25, scoring a knockout in 2:06 of the first round.

Pershing Missile Proves As Tough As It Is Rough

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The Army's Pershing missile proved itself as tough as it is rough in service launching tests now ended here.

A 190-mile flight Wednesday was the fourth successful launch by troops to see how the Pershing would fly after being jolted to the firing pad over rough ground, as well it might be in battle conditions.

Men of the 44th Artillery's Battery A, Fort Sill, Okla., launched the rocket and it functioned without a hitch, a spokesman said.

The 38-month-old Pershing program now shifts to White Sands, N.M., where troops will fire it for practice before being assigned to Pershing battalions which will be stationed in Western Europe.

5 Charged In Posing As Agents Of FBI

CLEVELAND (AP)—Dominic C. Lonardo, 42, owner of the AAA Bond Service in Cleveland, and four other men have been charged with impersonating FBI agents.

Lonardo denied the charges. He said he had expected to be praised for the private detective work which led to the arrest of a man who jumped bond and fled to Birmingham, Ala., while accused of a Cleveland bank burglary.

Charged Wednesday with Lonardo in Federal Court on two counts of impersonating federal agents were Mario J. Guerrieri, 32, a Youngstown bondsman; Peter Manos, 39, of Youngstown; Richard A. Stewart, 31, of Cleveland, and Thomas J. Myers, 28, of East Cleveland.

Hearing Reset Again

WEIRTON — Squire Thomas Bellanco has again continued a hearing for Robert L. Doughty, 28, of Weirton, charged on five counts in connection with an assault of Hancock County Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny March 30 at the Weirton Elks Club. Next hearing is Wednesday in the squire's office.

RED BRAND

The fence that lasts years longer.

Lasts Longer . . . That's Why!

In severe weather tests, Red Brand fence outlasted all others. Yet it cost no more than other brands of standard grade. Gives you more years of good service for your money. That's real fence value.

Double Protected

Extra heavy coating of pure zinc on the outside—plenty of copper in the steel. Full gage wires . . . "live" tension crimps . . . accurate spacing . . . tight knots that can't slip. You can't see all these good qualities, but when you see the top wire painted RED, you know you're getting them. We have a good stock of Red Brand Fence. Come in and see it.

Junior Editors Quiz on SENSE OF SMELL

QUESTION: How does our sense of smell work?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Smell is an extremely important sense to animals, because it is through this that they get most of their information about distant things. We humans rely more on our sight and our intelligence to give us an idea of the world around us. Yet we do use smell. Certainly smell is giving Richard, in our picture, a definite report on a distant object! What is happening is that vapor or gas is rising of the turkey, carrying many minute molecules. These enter Richard's nostrils (A) and are carried into his nasal cavity. Here they mix with a liquid in the lining of the nose. The chemicals in the liquid then stimulate nerve cells which lead toward a smell center composed of certain lobes of the brain (B). From this center, information about the smell is sent to the main control or direction center of the brain (C). In Richard's case, the control center is getting a very favorable report about the smell; it suggests something very good to eat. So it will send orders through Richard's body, telling him to sit down at the table and get ready to eat. In the case of something which has turned out bad, our smell wisely tells us not to touch it.

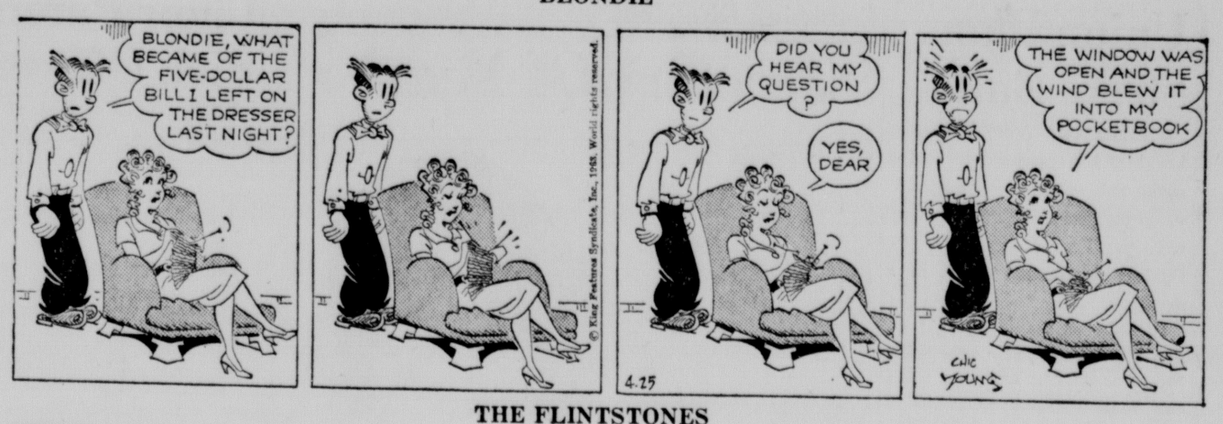

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Blindfold a friend who's willing to try an experiment and then hold his nose so he can't smell. Give him bits of onion and apple to taste. He'll probtbly have difficulty deciding which is which. This shows smell and taste are closely related.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Thursday, April 25, the 115th day of 1963. There are 250 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this day in 1945, representatives from 46 nations met in San Francisco to draft the charter for the United Nations. The world organization now has 110 members.

On this day:

In 1798, Judge Joseph Hopkinson's song, "Hail Columbia," was first sung in public at a Philadelphia theater.

In 1859, formal construction began on the Suez Canal.

In 1898, the United States declared war on Spain.

In 1945, Moscow announced the encirclement of Berlin by two Russian armies.

In 1959, the St. Lawrence Seaway from the Atlantic Ocean to the Great Lakes was opened to shipping.

Today's birthdays:

Ballerina Melissa Hayden is 35.

Thought for today:

Union Plans Strike Ballot

Ceramic City Auto Mechanics Local 1019 is expected to hold a strike vote within a few days after negotiations Wednesday night with the East Liverpool Auto Dealers Association ended in a deadlock.

Officials of the union said today the dealers made practically the same offer as before — a flat rate wage proposal — except that it was worded a little differently. The local already has refused to sign such a contract.

Last night's session lasted four and a half hours, according to Kenneth Schneidmiller, union secretary. He said not date has been set for the strike vote, but a special meeting will be called and announced.

Some of the members working at independent garages are considering signing contracts similar to the ones that were in effect last year. The contracts expired March 23.

About 26 to 30 members of the 84-member local are employed in garages operated by the dealers of the association. Tom Kelly is president of the local.

Sanction has been received from the International Association of Machinists, CIO-AFL, to strike if members approve.

Belmont Sheriff Returns To Stand In Bribe Trial

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Sheriff George Neff, who followed a parade of 18 character witnesses to the stand at his bribery trial Wednesday, resumes testimony today in Belmont County Common Pleas Court.

Neff is on trial for the second time on charges of soliciting bribes from private clubs in Barnesville where intoxicants were sold in violation of municipal law. The first trial ended in a jury deadlock.

The sheriff's testimony Wednesday was marked by 30 objections by Prosecutor William H. Irwin to what he called leading questions by defense attorney Hugo Alexander.

Neff denied allegations in previous testimony by Steve Miller, a former deputy, that the sheriff ordered him to solicit bribes in Barnesville.

Ship With Refugees Due Return Monday

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Red Cross says the S.S. American Surveyor, now unloading ransom supplies in Cuba, will not return to this country with refugees until at least next Monday.

Roy Popkin, of Red Cross national headquarters, said he knows of no reason for the delay.

The freighter, which took 8,000 tons of drugs, medical supplies and baby food to Havana last week, is scheduled to bring about 1,000 more refugees to the United States.

The ship is the sixth to carry such cargo to Cuba in exchange for the release of 1,110 Bay of Pigs invaders last December.

Man Gets Pen Term On Narcotics Charge

CLEVELAND (AP)—Three burlap sacks of unprocessed marijuana were displayed to a Common Pleas Court jury Wednesday when Adolphus Alexander, 38, was accused of possessing what police said was the largest supply of the narcotic weed to be seized here in a decade.

Alexander changed his plea to guilty and was sentenced to 10-20 years in Ohio penitentiary.

Choir Parents Pick Officers

Officers were elected at the meeting of the ELHS Choir Parents Tuesday night at the Memorial Auditorium. Mrs. Patrick O'Farrell, retiring president, presided.

Officers for next term include Frank Siddel, president; George Smurthwaite, vice president; William Savage, treasurer, and Mrs. Paul Lowers, secretary. The slate of officers was presented by Siddell, a member of the nominating committee, in the absence of John Hill, chairman. The installation dinner is scheduled May 28 and the place will be announced.

The group decided to purchase 20 additional robes for the concert choir, which will be enlarged for the 1963-64 term. Members are considering purchase of other items.

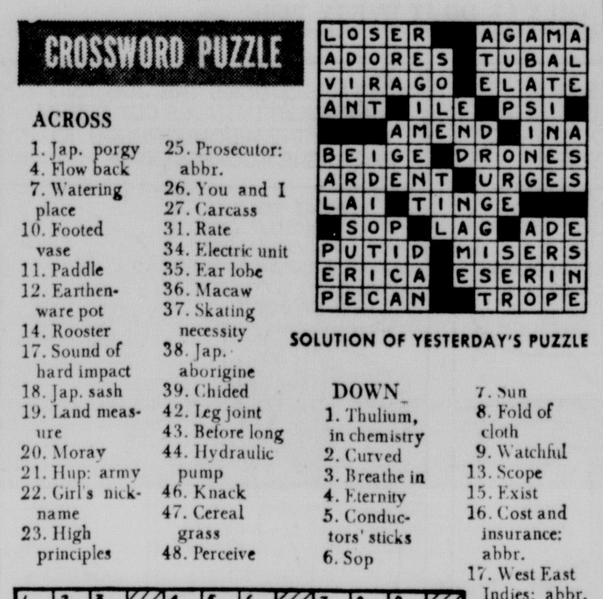

Mrs. J. W. Hopper, chairman, and Mrs. O'Farrell reported on the Ohio State University Girls Glee Club's performance at Westgate last week, which was successful both in attendance and proceeds. A report was also heard on the recent spring choir formal at Virginia Gardens at Rock Springs Park.

The choir will climax its activities with a spring serenade concert May 10-11 at the Westgate Auditorium.

To Go Home To Korea To Die

Rhee May Be Giving Up On His Greatest Wish

HONOLULU (AP) — Dr. Syngman Rhee, a weakened shadow of the iron-willed "Tiger of Korea," may have given up on his greatest wish—to go home to die.

Three years after he was deposed as president of South Korea in bloody student rioting, Rhee lies quietly in a Honolulu hospital whispering Christian hymns or listening to his Austrian wife read aloud.

"He never mentions going home any more," his nurse, Elaine Johnson, said. "He seems to be resigned." Until six months ago, she said, Rhee would ask, "Which way is north?" and talk of going home. "Now he talks only of what his life has been, not of the future."

Rhee tried to go home 13 months ago. That trip was called off by objections from the military government that now rules South Korea. It is apparent the Korean government still does't want Rhee back.

Rhee was 88 last month. He has spent most of his three years in Hawaii in hospitals. He still spends five or six hours daily out on a patio in a wheelchair. Otherwise he is bedridden. His wife, Francesca, keeps all but close friends away.

"He has good days and days when he's a little confused," Mrs. Johnson said.
